Obituary

MARILYN M. CLARK, 69 was born on January 18, 1956, in Mt. Sterling Kentucky, to the union of the late Charles Fletcher Sr. and Mabel Fletcher.

On June 11, 1983, the former Marilyn Fletcher took an oath in front of men and in the presence of God, to become the wife of 44 years to Thomas E. Clark Sr., their bond was strong, and their love for each other was unwavering.

Marilyn peacefully departed this life on Saturday, September 20, 2025, from a brief illness, at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, where she was surrounded by her loving family.

As a youth Marilyn , attended High Street Christian Church in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky and later became a member of the Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church in Winchester, KY., under the Pastoral Leadership of the late Rev. Isaac Jackson Sr., where she served on the Usher Board.

She was educated in the Montgomery County School System and proudly a 1976 graduated from Montgomery County High School.

She was a loving, kind-hearted woman who deeply cherished her family.

Her greatest joy came from spending time with her grandchildren, who brought immense pride and happiness into her life.

Marilyn, retired from Walle Corp in Winchester, Kentucky and later reinstated her employment status to part-time at TJ Max also in Winchester Kentucky.

Marilyn enjoyed having long phone conversations with her sisters, going out to eat, shopping, and walking.

Marilyn leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Thomas E. Clark Sr., her children, Thomas E. Clark Jr. (Rose) Michael T. Clark (Brienne), and her precious grandchildren, Aria Clark and Michael T. Clark Jr.

Also left to honor Marilyn's memories are her siblings, Buford (Grace) Fletcher of Mt. Sterling Kentucky, Evelyn Cunningham of Mt. Sterling Kentucky, Alfonzo (Robin) Fletcher of Winchester Kentucky, Victoria (Willie) Tribble, of Cincinnati Ohio, Patricia Jackson of Winchester, Kentucky, and Debbie (Christopher) McCaffery of Winchester, Kentucky, one sister-in-law, Lisa M. Clark and a brother-in-law, Rico Y. Clark both of Winchester, KY., a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

In addition to her parents, Marilyn was preceded in death by her three brothers, Charles Fletcher Jr., James Robert Fletcher Sr., Thomas Fletcher Sr., and two sisters, Deloris Fletcher, and Althea Owens.

Marilyn's beautiful spirit, warm heart, and unwavering love will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by all who knew her.

Miss Me, but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long

And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love we once shared.

Miss me, but let me go,

For this is a journey that we must all take

And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan—

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me, but let me go.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh, yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.*

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*
