DI'ZHON, WE MISS YOU!

Adapted from Melinda Jones

In your life you touched so many. In your death, many lives were changed. You were an amazing young man. Without you here, our lives will never be the same. We miss you more than words could ever say. Even more with each and every passing day. We just hold on to the memories that we made and All the promises God so graciously gave. Resting assured when Jesus comes there will be no more sadness, No more goodbyes, just life together eternally with Jesus by our side.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The family of Di'Zhon A. Robertson would like to express gratitude for all that have supported his family during this time of bereavement. We truly appreciate your prayers, kind words of encouragement, texts, calls, monetary donations, food donations, floral arrangements, and your presence today. May God continue to bless you.

OBITUARY

Di’Zhon Robertson unexpectedly passed away on Saturday, August 15, 2026. He was born on October 12, 2009, in Lexington, Kentucky. He was the beloved son of Dajuan Lewis and Tiffney Robertson, and was blessed with the love and support of his stepfather, Dakoda Young.

Di’Zhon had a caring heart and thoroughly enjoyed working as an volunteer with younger children. He found joy in helping, encouraging, and spending time with them. He also enjoyed traveling throughout the church community, where he faithfully assisted with sound and setup. His willingness to serve and lend a helping hand was a special part of who he was.

Di’Zhon leaves to cherish his memories his grandparents, Barbara D. Lewis, Benjamin (Paw Paw) and Lafonda (Nanny) Mabson, and Marvin Robertson Jr.; his siblings, Devin Hamilton, Danielle Hamilton, Di’Jonay Robertson, Dakota Young, and DaKilee Young; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his great-grandmother, Barbara J. Lewis.

Di’Zhon will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing and loving him. May his memory continue to live on through the lives he touched, the children he cared for, the church community he served, and in the hearts of his family, friends, and all who loved him
