

Obituary

Willam Curry Sr., the son of Stacy Curry and Willie Jones of Pickensville, Alabama was born November 30, 1945.

Willam accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Springhill Baptist Church in Carrollton, Alabama.

William received his formal education from Pickens County Training School in Carrollton, AL.

William was a dedicated employee of the Baldor Electric Company in Columbus, Mississippi, where he worked as a machine operator for over 25 years.

Riding his bicycle all over Columbus, Mississippi was one of the favorite things for William to do. He also owned 3 large dogs, Tina Turner, Bad Boy, and Blackey that he dearly loved. William was always up and ready for having a good time, telling jokes, and laughing. Most of all he was passionate about spending time with and loving his family.

Preceding William in death was his mother, Stacy Curry, his father, Willie Jones, and one son, William Curry, Jr.

Those left to cherish his legacy include his loving children, Mirinda Curry (Ezell), Tony Richey (Vernell), Zenetta Spencer (Donnell), Kenya Curry, Cierra Cunningham, Alecia Taylor (James), and Rowanda Curry; twelve grandchildren, six great grandchildren; three sisters, Annie Ruth Hinton, Maggie Rogers and Mary D. Prude; six brothers, J.M. Jones, Bobby Lee Jones, Sim Curry (Hattie), Don Curry, Hayward Prude, and Sherman Prude; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
