

Obituary

Mrs. Carrie Will Latham was born January 26, 1939 in Reform, Alabama to Joe Nathan and Carrie Bell Dantzler Glass.

Carrie received her formal education and graduated from the Pickens County Training School. She confessed her faith in Jesus Christ at an early age and was a dedicated and faithful member of Popular Springs C.M.E. Church until her health failed. During her time as a committed member of Popular Springs, Carrie used her beautiful voice by singing melodious songs of praise in the church choir and for prayer services.

Carrie was united in holy matrimony to Tommie Earl Latham. To their union three daughters were born. Later in life, God blessed Carrie with two sons.

Carrie enjoyed laughing, fishing, and simply enjoying life to its fullest. Most of all she loved The Lord and she loved caring for her family and helping others.

Both parents, her husband; daughter, Earline Latham; brothers, Joe Wyle Glass, Wardell Glass, Newburn Glass, Willie A Glass, an Raymond Glass; and sister, Annie Davis preceded Carrie in death.

Left to cherish memories of Carrie are her sons, Johnny Latham, Jr. (Betty) of Reform, Alabama and Billy Joe Latham (Dorothy) of Huntsville, Alabama; daughters, Sue St. Roberts of Reform, Alabama and Clara B. Love of Reform, Alabama; 12 grandchildren, and a multitude of great and great-great grandchildren; brothers, Willie James Glass (Penny) of Northport, Alabama, Charles Glass of Huntsville, Alabama; Bobby Glass (Annette) of Nashville, Tennessee, Jerry Wells and Lavon Glass both of Reform, Alabama; sisters, Maggie Gray of New York, Mary Glass Turnipseed (Pastor Henry) of Reform, Alabama, and Jonell Glass of Georgia; sisters-in-law, Arie Glass of Illinois and Erma Glass of Arizona; step sisters, Mary Pitt and Dorothy Poindexter, both of Georgia; step brother, Roy Wells of Arizona; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
