

A Beautiful Life Remembered

Charlotte Patricia Crawford was born on February the 14th 1945 to the late Charles and the late Mildred Basiege in Philadelphia, Pa.

Charlotte grew up in a loving home with her siblings and was educated in the Philadelphia public school system.

After graduation, she worked in banking and then as a medical assistant. She was hired on to Smith, Kline, & French now known as Glaxo Smith Kline Pharmaceuticals. It was there that she met, fell in love, and married the late Hayden Stockton Crawford. From their union came two children: sons, Kyle, and three years later, Kevin. She became a stay-at-home Mom so she could raise and nurture her children. She later became a certified early childhood development teacher and remained shaping and molding young minds for over thirty years until retiring in 2009 and moving to North Carolina.

Having always been in a close personal relationship with God, she became a partner of The City of David Church. She was dubbed the Mother of the Church and affectionately called Mother Crawford. Here she would spend the rest of her life doing what she loved most, serving God and spreading love. She would often say that God said her latter years would be better than her former years, and they definitely were.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Gertrude Bundy.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories, sons, Kyle (Sarine), Kevin (Shantae); grandchildren, Stephen Miller (Sherrell), Justin Johnson, Jonathan Johnson, Alisha Crawford and Matthew Crawford; five great-grandchildren, and one great-great granddaughter. her sister, Sally Basiege, brother, Charles Basiege II and a host of other relatives and friends.

Until We Meet Again

Saying goodbye is never easy
although it's something we must do,

We wait to see you later
knowing we'll never forget you.

We remember all the good times and the memories that we've shared,

Appreciating your patience
your time and all your care.

We're grateful for the time we had you,
now it's time for you to rest.

We love you with every bit of our hearts,
But it's God who loves you best.

Acknowledgment

The family acknowledges with deep gratitude all expressions of love and kindness shown during this period of our loss.
