

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Remembering Chaunce

Chaunce Phinx, known to most as Chug or Big was born on September 14, 1966, in Gaston County, North Carolina to Margaret Eliza Essie Mae Anderson Phinx and Withro Chauncey Phinx. Chaunce transitioned to his heavenly home on June 3, 2025, at Atrium Health Lincoln in Lincolnton, North Carolina.

Chaunce graduated from East Lincoln Senior High School in 1985. He worked and Park Dale for many years. Chaunce also worked at McGuire Nuclear Station on the clean up crew for many years.

Chaunce was a loving uncle, brother, and friend. He helped raise his nieces and nephews as if they were his own. If you ever encountered Chaunce, you know his favorite saying was “One Love.”

Chaunce joined Gold Hill Missionary Baptist Church at an early age.

Chaunce is preceded in death by his mother, Margaret Phinx; his father, Withro “Buck” Phinx; two brothers, David Phinx and Mitchell Phinx; maternal grand parents, Nathan E. Anderson, and Nannie Morrison Anderson; paternal grandparents, Wilson “Notes” Phinx and Esther Mae Long Phinx.

Chaunce leaves to cherish precious memories: five brothers, Berry Phinx, Kerry Phinx, John Phinx, Robert Phinx and Maurice Phinx (Kelly); two sisters, Angela Phinx and Chanthini Phinx all of Stanley, North Carolina; five special nieces and nephews, Unique, Savannah, Lincoln, Sawyer, and Saylor. He also had special friends that he was with daily, Mica Anderson, Kelly Graham, Sr., Leroy Bost (Michelle), Greg Randolph, Tony Thompson and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
