

The Road

I lived my life the best I could,
I chose my path just like I should.
The road has ended now you see,
My soul and spirit have been set free.

Those I left behind to mourn,
The ones I've helped and watched be born,
My children I loved and cherished so much,
The ones I leaned on, they were my crutch.

They were there in the past few days,
For the late night visits and overnight stays,
Now I must travel this road alone,
With nothing to carry, just these old bones.

Remember me for the good times and bad.
Remember the smile I always had.
These are the things to remember me for,
I gave all I had and so much more.
Appreciate the things that life have to give,
You only have the one life to live.
So take the time to live it right,
Then you can see God's heavenly light.

A Life Well Lived

Eunice Teen Ijames Campbell was born on February 25, 1932 in Gaston County, North Carolina to the late Revis Friday and Alma Ijames Holland. She was raised by her grandparents, the late Reverend Herbert and Mattie Ijames. She departed this life on Wednesday, September 10, 2025 at CaroMont Regional Medical Center in Gastonia, North Carolina surrounded by her love ones.

As a devoted member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church in Bessemer City, North Carolina she was a member of the Deaconess Board, Missionary Group, Communion Committee, and other various auxiliaries. As the oldest female member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, she was given the title "Mother of the Church" which she proudly served. Her family meant so much to her and her attendance was very important.

Eunice attended John Chavis High School in Cherryville, North Carolina. She retired from Bali Industries in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her devoted and loving husband, Deacon Belton F. Campbell and her only daughter-in-law, Leslie Campbell.

Those left to cherish her life and precious memories are her three daughters, Chinita Hatten (Jerry, Sr.), and Karen Watts (Cass) of Gastonia, North Carolina and Shelia Campbell of Bessemer City, North Carolina; one son, Travis Campbell of Gastonia, North Carolina.

In addition to her children, Eunice leaves behind nine grandchildren, Jerry, Jr., Allen, Trey, Ashley (Mike), Sylvia, Bethany, Bryson, Jonathan and Olivia; eight great-grandchildren, Cameron, Jayda, Mikevien, Khmia, Ahkil, Ahkeena, Kameelah and Kaimahni; one sister-in-law, Dr. Eleanor Campbell of Charlotte, North Carolina; one aunt, Gladiola Little of Cherryville, North Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Eunice's life was filled with love for the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, her husband, children, grandchildren, extended family and church family. Although she will no longer be with us, we will always feel her presence. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.
