In Memory

*A light from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

*‘Twas hard to part with one so dear,
We little thought the time was near;
Farewell dear one, your life is past,
Our love for you ‘til the end will last.*

In Gratitude

In everything both great and small, we see the hand of God through various expressions of sympathy you have extended to us. It is with deepest gratitude that we thank each of you during this most difficult time.

The Obituary

Mrs. Martha Ann Boyce Ajetunmobi, daughter of the late Obediah' and Hattie Pearl Crawford Boyce was born on January 22nd, 1942. She departed this life on Tuesday October 7th, 2025 at Atrium Health in Charlotte, North Carolina. After a long illness, she was being cared for by her loving daughter, Shade' and a series of Health Care Workers along with her family and friends.

Martha was a graduate of Lincoln High School in Bessemer City, NC In 1960. She matriculated to Talledega College in Alabama and continued her education in New Jersey at Rutgers where she obtained a degree in marketing. Her employment consisted of supervisory and Administrative positions with various companies including Western Electric and AT&T. She also worked at Union Chapel AME Church after retirement along side her co-workers and longtime friends. She was the co-founding member of Concerned "R", a nonprofit organization that helped families experiencing hard times as well as supporting the community by providing scholarships to college students. She was a world traveler and a lover of the arts.

Martha also opened her own clothing boutique after she had retired from AT & T.

She moved back to North Carolina from Hillside, New Jersey to be near her family and friends in 2007. Martha joined Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, NC. She was a faithful servant and was loved by all she came in contact with.

Martha is preceded by her husband of forty-five years, Sanunu Akinola Ajetunmobi; parents, a sister, Mary Elaine Bell and also her niece, Kimberly Herndon.

She leaves to mourn two daughters, Tracy E. Boyce and Shade' A. Ajetunmobi; two granddaughters, Brittany Williamson and Trinity Anderson; two brothers, Obie Dean Boyce (Marilyn) of Oklahoma City, OK and Douglas Boyce (Doris) of Charlotte, NC; nephews, Myron Boyce (Kiya), Ingrid Clay and Juan Boyce (Knita); Pricilla Herndon, and Frida Herndon. Also a host of grand nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends. She also leaves behind an adopted family in Connecticut.
