

REMEMBERING Jesse

On December 1, 2025, Jesse Earl Beverly was called to his heavenly home. Jesse was born in Birmingham, Alabama on January 11, 1963, to the late Frank Beverly, Sr. and Molly Mae Evans Beverly.

Jesse was the third of nine children and never hesitated to share his wisdom with his siblings. Affectionately called "Earl the Pearl" by family and friends, he carried himself with quiet strength and courage, qualities his siblings deeply admired.

Jesse spent most of his adult life in Forest City and Gastonia. While living in Gastonia, he was grateful for the opportunity to work at Jackson's Cafeteria, a job that allowed him to share his passion for cooking. He became quite fond of both his work and his co-workers, and he often said he felt as though he had gained another family. Jesse loved his job and was known for being the early bird. Customers looked forward to seeing his big smile and enjoying the food he prepared with such pride.

Outside of work, Jesse enjoyed a variety of hobbies. He was an enthusiastic chess player who competed twice a week at Defray's Barbershop and proudly liked to say, "No one can beat me because I'm the JB". He was also a devoted sports fan who loved watching the Carolina Panthers and discussing the games with his sister, Fulvia whom he fondly referred to as "Wook". When he wasn't watching sports, he could often be found listening to music, adding a few of his own dance moves. Jesse also loved indulging in his favorite pastimes, watching movies. He was known to recite entire scenes word for word and especially enjoyed old-school films, including classic cowboy movies.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Frank Beverly, Jr. David McClinnham and his sisters, Theresa McClinnham and Matrice McClinnham.

He is survived by his daughter, Denecia "Delicious" Bevily of Washington, DC; sisters, Cynthia Fredlaw of Charlotte, NC, Fulvia Beverly of Charlotte, NC, Debra Ann Beverly of Gastonia, NC and brother Andre Beverly of Charlotte, NC; 4 grandchildren, Kelvon, Remedey and Marquel Bevily and Teliyah Wade of Washington, DC and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Jesse leaves behind a loving family who will forever cherish his presence, his wisdom, and his joyful spirit. We are grateful for the time we had with him and for the many memories that will continue to warm our hearts.

To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.
