Note of Thanks

With deep gratitude, we express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the many friends and church family for their acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown to us during our bereavement. May God bless each and everyone of you.

The Family of Vivian Miller Bryson

A light from our house is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
T'was hard to part with one so dear
We little thought the time was near, Farwell
Mama/Vivi, your life has passed.
Our love for you 'til the end will last.

We will always love you,
Your Family

Life Reflections

Vivian D. Miller Bryson, 67, was born on November 22, 1958, in Concord, North Carolina, to Dorothy Miller and Rev. Retoy Gaston. She transitioned peacefully at Trident Medical Center in Charleston, South Carolina on Saturday, December 6, 2025.

She was preceded in death by her husband and mother, William J. Bryson, III and Dorothy Miller, respectively.

Vivian grew up in the Clanton Park Community, and at an early age she joined St. Mark's United Methodist Church under Rev. Clarence Strickland, where she remained a faithful and active member. She graduated from Myers Park High School and later attended Elon University, where she discovered her love for writing and became an active member of the gospel choir. Her time at Elon allowed her to form cherished friendships and connect deeply with a community that remained meaningful to her throughout her life.

Vivian, affectionately called "Vibb" by family and friends built long and respected careers in the mortgage and insurance industries. She retired from Allstate Insurance Company where she was admired for her kindness, professionalism and steady spirit. After retirement, Vivian embraced a quieter, joy-filled chapter of life. She loved spending time with her family, especially her beloved grandson, who affectionately called her "Vivi". Becoming a grandmother brought her immeasurable happiness. She poured her heart into creating memories with him by reading stories, sharing laughter, and offering the same gentle encouragement and love she had given her children. Her later years were marked with peace, family love and gratitude for all the blessings God placed in her life.

Above all, Vivian was a devoted mother and grandmother. She treasured every moment with her family and continuously encouraged them to trust the Lord and walk in faith.

To cherish her memories, Vivian leaves behind daughters: Simone Bryson Howze (Alston) of North Charleston, SC and Marshelle L. Bryson of Mint Hill, NC; sons: William J. Bryson, IV of North Charleston, SC and Mark Bibbs of Chapel Hill, NC; brothers: Timmie H. Miller of Charlotte, NC and Troy Gaston (Carol) of Charlotte, NC; her beloved grandson Alston Ryan Howze, Jr. of North Charleston, SC; stepmother, Ada Gaston of Charlotte, NC; aunts: Pearlie E. Asbury of Concord, NC; Mary Louise Helton and Bessie M. Qaiyim all of Charlotte, NC; sisters-in-law Wyndaline "Wendy" Bryson Russell (James) of Charlotte, NC and Emily Bryson Davis of Gastonia, NC; brother-in-law, Anthony G. Bryson of Sharpsburg, GA and a host of loving nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
