The Promise

As the world turns, we stand amazed,
To witness this appointed day.
God's promise, spoken long ago,
Now lights our path along the way.

A vision of our Savior shines,
His gentle presence drawing near.
He fills our hearts with perfect peace
And quiets every doubt and fear.

The road before us becomes clear,
Bathed in heaven's radiant light.
His loving hand reaches for ours,
To guide us safely through the night.

Now one beloved has journeyed home,
Where pain and sorrow are no more.
Received with joy and endless love
Upon God's bright and golden shore.

Christ calls His children unto Him,
And faithfully we trust His plan.
For every promise He has made
Is held forever in His hands.

Obituary

Mrs. Erwin "Brownie" Currence Jackson entered eternal rest on May 31, 2026, at the blessed age of 97 years. She departed this life leaving a legacy of faith, service, love, and compassion that will continue to inspire generations.

Born on May 25, 1929, Mrs. Jackson was a woman whose life reflected unwavering faith in God and a deep commitment to family and community. She received both her high school diploma and cosmetology degree from Highland High School. As a licensed beautician, she spent many years serving others through her profession. Her beauty chair became more than a place for hairstyling—it became a place of encouragement, fellowship, wisdom, and friendship. Many women left her chair not only looking beautiful but feeling uplifted and empowered.

Mrs. Jackson faithfully served her church and community with grace and humility. She was a devoted member of Saint Peter's AME Zion Church where she worked tirelessly in numerous ministries throughout her life.

A Life of Faith and Service

At Saint Peter's AME Zion Church, Mrs. Jackson faithfully served as:

- Usher
- Senior Choir Member
- Vocal Choir Member
- Deaconess
- Stewardess
- Willing Worker
- Missionary Board Member

Mrs. Jackson was known throughout the community for her generous spirit and loving heart. She never met a stranger and believed that everyone deserved kindness and respect.

She lovingly provided for her grandchildren and opened her home to countless others who needed guidance, support, a meal, or simply someone who cared. Her kitchen was a place of comfort where many gathered to enjoy her cooking, fellowship, and words of wisdom.

She enjoyed fishing, planting flowers, and spending time outdoors. Just as she nurtured her flowers, she nurtured the lives of those around her with patience, care, and unconditional love.

Among her favorite scriptures was Psalm 23. The words, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want," guided her throughout her life and strengthened her faith through every season.

Through life's many seasons, Mrs. Jackson endured profound loss with remarkable faith, dignity, and strength. She outlived her beloved husband, all of her children, and all of her siblings. Yet even in the face of such heartache, she remained a source of encouragement, wisdom, love, and unwavering support to generations of family, friends, and community members. Her life stands as a testament to perseverance, grace, and an abiding trust in God.
