Roseboro's Favorite Poem: Footprints In The Sand
Mary Stevenson (1939)

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
one belonging to me and one to the Lord.
When the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that many times along the path of my life
there was only one set of footprints.
This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it:
*"Lord, You said that once I decided to follow You,
You would walk with me always.*
But I notice that during the most troublesome times of my life
there is only one set of footprints.
I just don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
You would leave me." The Lord replied:
"My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you."

LIFE JOURNEY

Roseboro Lomick, Jr. was born August 1, 1939. The oldest of 10 children to the late Rev. Roseboro & Clemus Harris Lomick.

Roseboro graduated Valedictorian of his class in 1958 from John Chavis High School in Cherryville, NC.

He served in the United States Army, as a specialist 4 from 1963-1965.

Roseboro attended A&T College in Greensboro and Biscayne Business College where he received his Associate's Degree. He began his career as a pattern maker at Danoca and worked at other companies in the same capacity. He continued his working career at the movie theater and JCPenney's in the Eastridge Mall.

His favorite pastimes were going to the movies, singing and "piddling". Roseboro was a last of a generation kind of man. He was a devoted family man and a loyal friend. He simply did not meet strangers, only friends that he had yet to meet. He was the kind of thinking man who believed that any problem could be solved, and with that approach and attitude he helped many others along his life journey find solutions to their troubles. He impacted us all like a tall standing pillar and will continue to do so. He was known by many names but whatever you called him, there will be a time when we ask ourselves, "what would he say to me?" And we will hear his voice continue to show us the way...

Roseboro was a faithful member of Wesley Chapel AME Zion Church where he served as Sunday School Superintendent, Trustee Board Chairman & Church Treasurer.

Roseboro was married to Louise Feemster Lomick for 63 years and to this union was born two sons Darryl (Amy) and Marlon (Vernell) and one daughter Shunda (Clinton)

He was a doting pawpaw to Johnathan (Gina), Jalen, Rayanah, Shardei and Ajani and the best poppi to Braelynn, Beckham, Aubree and a god grandpa to Megan Corry.

In addition to his wife, children, and grandchildren he leaves to cherish his memories, his brother, Roger Lomick, his sisters, Rosetta Tinsley (Thomas), Rachel Floyd, and Rosa Feemster (Sam); his sisters-in-law, Mildred Abrams, Linda Allison (Roger), Imogene Johnson (Richard), Tina Feemster; brothers-in-law, Clinton Feemster (Melicent), Edward Feemster (Gwen) and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins, some of whom he gave a home when needed.
