Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry, the way you did today
While thinking of the many things, we did not get to say
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too

But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand.
The angel said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.

But as I turned away, a tear fell from my eyes.
I had so much yet to do, it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, I thought for just a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But when I fully realized that this could never be for emptiness and memories would take the place for me.
So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart

A Beautiful Life Remembered

Mrs. Monica Lynn Friday Kendrick, 61, was born in Gaston County, North Carolina on September 27, 1964 and departed this life Friday, June 26, 2026 at CaroMont Regional Medical Center in Gastonia, North Carolina. She was the daughter of Parthenia Johnson Friday and the late Bud Friday, Jr.

Lynn received her early education at W. C. Friday Middle School. She graduated from North Gaston High School Class of 1982 where she was a part of the Band as a Flag Girl for three years. Determined to pursue a higher education, Lynn attended Gaston College where she earned her certificate in Certified Nursing Assistance, Medication Aides (Med Tech) and other certificates.

At an early age, she joined Humphrey's Chapel AME Zion Church in Dallas, North Carolina where she was an Usher and sung on the choir.

Lynn began her careers working in textiles and then later on worked in several Nursing Homes as a Certified Nursing Assistance as well as a One on One Caregiver.

Lynn is preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Bud Friday, Sr. and Zettie Friday and maternal grandparents, Will and Annie Lee Johnson; and her father, Bud Friday, Jr.

She leaves behind her husband, David Kendrick; with broken hearts and fond memories, her daughter, Quonisha Friday; son, Devanta Friday; her mother, Parthenia J. Friday; her siblings, Antonia Friday (Rhonda), Budricka F. Stinson (William), Kelvin Friday, Tonya Friday, and Chastity Friday; grandson, Rodrick Friday; one great-granddaughter, Zy'leagh Milburn; and a host of other relatives and friends.
