

Boogie's Light

*In Loving Memory of Boogie
He never needed much to say
To let his goodness show
A porch, a laugh, a summer day
Were all he'd have you know.*

*He didn't chase the noise of things
Or seek the loudest room
He found his peace in simple days
And let his kindness bloom.*

*Now though his voice has gone still,
His laughter lingers near
In every porch and quiet hour
We'll feel that he is here.*

*So, when the tide along the shore
carries him out to rest,
We'll smile and know that Boogie's home
Remembering only his best.*

Final Resting

In celebration of Boogie's life, his family will gather on his birthday, October 1, to release his ashes at the beach, a final farewell filled with love and remembrance.

FAMILY MEMORIES

Darrell Wilson Burris, affectionately known as “Boogie,” was born on October 1, 1959, in Gaston County, North Carolina. He departed this life peacefully at home on August 30, 2026.

Boogie was a 1979 graduate of Hunter Huss High School. Quiet by nature, he had a warm personality and a sense of humor that made his presence known. He enjoyed the simple things in life, especially sitting on the porch, sharing a laugh, and spending time around those he loved. Boogie had a way of making people laugh and bringing a little lightness into the moment without ever needing to be the center of attention.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Virginia Friday-Burris; his father, Oscar Burris; and his sister, Shelia Powell.

Boogie leaves to cherish his memories his son, Darrell Quincy Burris; two granddaughters, Savanah and Jacquaria Burris; his siblings, Sharon Stackson (Mike), Mark Burris, Vanessa Brewer (Duewane), Howard Burris (Mary), Wayne Burris (Artina), and Lamar Burris; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, coworkers, and friends.

Though Boogie lived quietly, the laughter, memories, and warmth he shared with those who knew him will remain.
