The Phillips Family would like to express sincere gratitude for every expression of kindness and prayers during this time. God gives us comfort in the form of good friends. Your love for us will forever be cherished in our hearts. May God bless each and every one of you. A special thanks to Atrium Advanced Heart and Transplant Team, Dr. Gregory Brouse and his caring team at Atrium Health Levine Cancer Institute and the exceptional and compassionate team at Atrium Health Hospice Care Union.

The Obituary

Clinton Phillips Jr. was born December 25, 1941 in Union County, North Carolina, to Clinton Clyde Phillips, Sr. and Verla Mae Jordan Phillips. He was called to eternal rest on September 7, 2025.

The oldest of seven children, Clinton grew up in Marshville, NC. He graduated from East Union School in Marshville, North Carolina in 1963. He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Chambers Groove Baptist Church and later joined Salem Church in Pageland, South Carolina where he served as a trustee and in various other roles and was a faithful member until his health began to fail.

Clinton spent most of his career as an agricultural farmer. He started out raising turkeys in the 1970’s and later switched to raising broiler chickens with Tyson Foods in the 1990’s. He also diversified into raising cattle and growing and harvesting hay.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Clinton Clyde Phillips Sr. and Verla Mae Phillips, along with three sisters, Geraldine Price, Mary Thompson, Diane Douglas, and one brother, Steve Phillips.

Left to cherish his memories are his loving and devoted wife, Jessie Phillips; his four children, Derek (Christy) Phillips, Ira Phillips, La Toya Phillips-Blakeney (Joe), and Robert Thomas, all of Union County, North Carolina; four grandchildren; Kiandra Henderson, Taylor Williams, Maya Mosley, Cadien Phillips and four great grandchildren. He also leaves to mourn his passing three sisters, Emma Sinclair of Peachland, NC, Sara Carter of Decatur, GA and Henrietta Scott of Charlotte, NC; his Classmates and Best Friends, Olin Marsh of Marshville, NC and Roger Rorie of Peachland, NC; three Godsons; Scott McMillian, Derrick McClain, and Willis Woodberry.

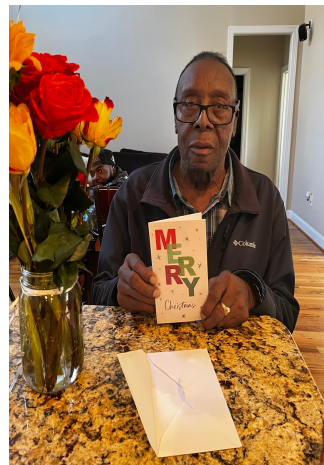

Clinton is further survived by his beloved aunt; Viola Wheeler of Elgin, SC, his sister-in-law; Naomi Roberts of Woodbridge, VA and brothers-in-law; Henry Douglas of Charlotte, NC and George Thompson of Monroe, NC.

He also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many dear friends who will continue to cherish his memory.

*I thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday
And days before that, too.
I think of you in silence
I often speak your name
All I have are memories
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake
With which I'll never part.
God has you in His keeping;
I have you in my heart.*

My Last Request

*Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right to give the most I could, no less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Please don't send me flowers or talk in real hush tones.
Don't be concerned about me now; I 'm well with God.
I've Made it Home.*

*Don't talk about what I could have been, it's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint.
I've done some good; I've done some wrong, so use all of your paint.
Not just bright and light tones use some gray and dark.
In fact, don't put me down on canvas; paint me in your heart.
Don't just remember the good times, remember all the bad.
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad...*

*But if you must do something, then I have one request.
Forgive me for the wrong I've done and with the love that's left...
Thank God my souls resting... Thank God I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loves me... Praise God who loved me best.*
