~The Obituary~

Mildred Leigh Hailey Allen (AKA Milt) was born February 23, 1941 to the late Lexie and Hattie Mae Crawford Haiely. She transitioned from her earthly home into her eternal home October 23, 2025 surrounded by her family.

Milt graduated from Anson County Training School in Wadesboro, NC.

Milt accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of Kesler Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church attended church until her health began to fail. Milt worked in textile in Anson County during the textile era in Wadesboro.

Milt was known for her wit and her friendship to all of those who came in contact with her.

Milt was preceded in death by her husband, David Allen, only son, Gregory (Tony) Allen, two sisters, Fannie Mae Mitchell and Effie Watson and five brothers, Lucious, Walter, Robert, Ray and Ernest Hailey.

Milt's legacy lives on through her four daughters: Debra Allen, Monroe, NC, Wendy Cox (Pete), Monroe, NC, Melody Peguese (Ronnie), Midland, NC and Carol Allen (Thomas), Marshville, NC; three granddaughters, Chadrenia Price (John), Natasha Davis and La Crystal Peguese. Nine great grands and four great great grands. One brother, Alexander Haliley (Helena) and one sister-in-law, Josephine Hailey. A bonus son, Ricky Rhodes. A special cousin, Cylathia Borden. Her faithful friend of 34 years, Annie Crump and a special dear friend, James Mungo. A host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mildred lived a full life full of love, laughter, and joy. She stood strong with her toughest battle and showed us all what it means to hear and trust in God until the end. We will truly miss her laughter, humor and the conversations she shared upon this journey.

Thanks to her caregivers Pamela Bennett and Kendra Liles who became a special part of her life.
