

SHE IS GONE

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on*

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

With GRATITUDE

Jesus assured us that those who mourn would be comforted, and in our time of bereavement, we have experienced the truth of this promise through the kindness and love of our dear "Friends and Neighbors." We are deeply grateful. Your calls, visits, prayers, and acts of kindness during the passing of our loved one will forever be cherished. May God bless and watch over each of you.

When I Am Gone

When I am gone release me

Let me go, I have so many things to see and do.

You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many beautiful years. I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown. Now it's time, I travel alone, so grieve awhile for me. Then let your grief be comforted by my trust. It's only for awhile that we must part.

So, bless the memories within your hear I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen within your heart you'll hear all my love around you, soft and clear.

*And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home."*
