DON'T CRY FOR ME

*Don't cry too long for me,
my loved ones—I'm still right here.
Not in the way you're used to,
not in the chair or the doorway
or the shop where my hands stayed busy,
but in the love we built
that time can't erase.
When the days feel heavy,
breathe deep and listen.
If you hear a laugh in the distance
that sounds a little like mine,
or feel a warmth settle over you
when you didn't expect it—
that's me reminding you
I never really left.
I know the pain you feel
comes from the love we shared,
and I'm grateful for every bit of it.
But don't let grief steal your days.
Live them for me.
Live them boldly, with joy, with peace,
with the same kindness
you always gave me.
I'm watching over you now—my babies,
my family, my friends.
I carry you with me
in a place where hands don't grow tired
and hearts don't break.
So when you miss me,
close your eyes—
I'll meet you there.
And when you're ready, smile again.
I will smile with you.
Until we meet again, know this:
I am safe, I am free, and I am still loving you just as fiercely as ever.*

WINSTON TYRONE SMITH

April 15, 1975 - November 11, 2025

Winston Tyrone Smith, age 50, of Perry, Georgia, was born on April 15, 1975, in Vienna, Georgia, and peacefully left this world on November 11, 2025, in Perry, Georgia.

Winston was a husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend to many. He will be remembered for his incredible talent, warm spirit, and the lasting impact he made on everyone who knew him.

Winston was a well-known barber and gifted artist, with more than 35 years of experience perfecting his craft. He worked at Major's Barber Shop in Fort Valley and West Side Barber Shop in Warner Robins, where he built lifelong friendships with his clients and was admired for his skill, creativity, and professionalism. In addition to his barbering, Winston was known for his artistic touch, he could customize and create just about anything with his hands and imagination.

He leaves behind his loving daughter, Jordan Reese of Macon, Georgia, and his son, Travis Smith of Warner Robins, Georgia. He is also survived by his mother, Mabelle Joseph of Perry, Georgia; his sister, Deidra Burnam of Vienna, Georgia; his brothers Wayne Warner and John Joseph his aunt, Ella Joseph of Perry, Georgia; and his uncles, Otis Joseph of Warner Robins, James Joseph of Perry, and Robert Joseph of Perry.

Winston was preceded in death by his father, Leonard Smith, and his sister, Donna Lamar.

He will also be lovingly remembered by his nephews, Sir Travis Lamar of Port Orange, Florida; Terry Ranson of Warner Robins, Georgia; DeAnthony Lamar of Texas; Tevin Lamar of Perry, Georgia; and Scooby of Vienna, Georgia; along with many great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and countless friends.

Winston's memory will live on through the love he shared, the art he created, and the many lives he touched. His laughter, creativity, and kind heart will never be forgotten.
