The Obituary

MRS. ELSIE LUCILLE ELLIOTT, 95, was born on April 19, 1928. She entered into rest, Wednesday, August 16, 2023, at her residence in Augusta, Georgia.

Elsie became a member of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Guthrie, Kentucky, in 1960. She served in various roles within the church to include, church secretary, choir member and mothers board member.

Over forty years ago, she retired from Pennyriple Action Community Service. She was very dedicated to her community and served as a poll worker for every election over a fifty-year span. She served on the Board for the Senior Citizen Counsel, member of the Zoning and Planning Commission and was President of the Interfaith Church Coalition in Guthrie, Kentucky. One of her highest honors was being bestowed the title "Kentucky Colonel." An award given by the governor to recognize an individual's noteworthy accomplishments and outstanding community service.

Mrs. Elliott was preceded in death by: her husband, Reverend Cary Elliott; daughter, Donna Cooper; son, William Cooper; and sixteen sisters and brothers.

Her legacy will be cherished by: her daughter, Mary (Alvin) Beattie; grandson, D'Avante (Candice) Beattie; great granddaughters, Addison and Lilliana; beloved nieces, Michelle Fisher-Flagan and Deborah Johnson; beloved nephews, Carr Johnson and Nate Carr; and a host of other family and friends.

Don't Be Saddened

Don't be saddened because I'm gone,
Do everything the same and live on.
Don't shed tears, please don't cry,
God will wipe the tears from your eyes.
From you I had to depart,
But let my memories remain in your heart.
Don't be saddened I'm at rest,
You all loved me, but God loved me best.

Acknowledgements

The family is grateful for all the kindness that has been shown during this time.
