He Maketh No Mistake

~ Joshua Hood ~

*My Father's way may twist and turn, my heart may throb and ache.
But in my soul I'm glad I know, He maketh no mistake.
My cherished plans may go astray, my hopes may fade away, but still I'll trust my Lord to lead, for He doth know the way.
Tho 'night be dark and it may seem that day will never break;
I'll pin my faith, my all in Him, He maketh no mistake.
There's so much now I cannot see, my eyesight's far too dim;
but come what may, I'll simply trust and leave it all to Him.
For by and by the mist will lift and plain it all He'll make.
Through all the way, tho' dark to me, He made not one mistake.*

Acknowledgements & Words of Thanks

Perhaps you telephoned or visited during the hour of dismay; perhaps you sent a dish of food to help us on the way; perhaps you said a silent prayer that God might see us through; perhaps you gave us words of comfort, as only friends can do; perhaps you sent a funeral spray, potted plant, or lovely bouquet; perhaps you sent a telegram or traveled from miles away. Whatever you did to console our grieved hearts, we shall be forever grateful, whatever the part.

Special Thanks to Damita Clark

~ Daisy Mae Jenkins Bell ~

Daisy Mae Jenkins Bell born in Richmond County, Hephzibah, Georgia to the late Mr. Bennie and Mrs. Carrie Lee Jenkins on Thursday, July 10, 1947. God called Daisy home to be with Him on Thursday, December 14, 2023.

At an early age Daisy gave her life to God. All her life Daisy loved the Lord and was a member of Historic First Ebenezer Baptist Church in Hephzibah, Georgia.

Daisy attended Richmond County Schools and was a graduate of Lucy Craft Laney Class of '65. She was a long-time employee of Gracewood State School and Hospital and retired after 30 plus years of faithful service.

On Saturday, March 17, 1984, Daisy married Sylvester Bell II in Aiken, South Carolina. Together they resided in Hephzibah, Georgia raising three children.

Preceding Daisy in death was her husband, Sylvester; parents, Bennie and Carrie; siblings, Nelson, Franklin, John Albert, Jerry, and grandson, De'Majhay Bell.

Daisy was a super fan of basketball star LeBron James of the LA Lakers and the Atlanta Braves. However, Isaiah Thomas and bingo was her "thang." She also enjoyed shopping and looking at westerns. On any given day, Daisy could be found taking care of her grands and great grands, which brought her joy and pleasure.

Daisy came from a loving family. She leaves to cherish her love and memory, two sons, Reginald (Kelle) Stone, Hephzibah, GA, James (Stefanie) Stone, Augusta, GA, and daughter, Twyla Bell, Hephzibah, GA. Seven siblings, Julia Mims, Minnie (Alfred) Mealing, Bennie Jenkins Jr., Gladys Jenkins, Leroy (Annette) Jenkins, Rose Gilmore, and Robert Jenkins, Aunt, Lillie Dixon; 11 grandchildren: Mario, Reginald Jr. (Raconia), Ly'ndah, Dy'Quez, Keoddis, Voshon, Jayden, Ottavione, Keenan, Jameson, and Liam; great-grands, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, friends, and adopted daughter, Mary Nero.

"If Roses Grow in Heaven"

~ Dolores M. Garcia ~

*If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.*
