A Poem from the Family

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.

We think of you in silence,
we often speak your name,
all we have is memories,
and your picture in a frame.

Your live was a blessing.
Your memory is a treasure.
You are loved beyond words,
And missed beyond measure

Though our hearts are heavy,
We know God called you home.
We'll carry your love forever,
Until we meet around the throne.

With love, Your Family

The Nieces and Nephews

Auntie, you were our sunshine,
With laughter, hugs, and cheer. You taught us love and kindness, each moment you were near.

We'll miss your smile and talent, the joy you always gave,
your love will stay within us,
A gift we'll always save.

With Love, Jaylen & Aaliyah

Obituary

Sharon Ann McAdoo

Sharon Ann Jones McAdoo was born January 11, 1969 in Louin Mississippi to the late Frank and Virgie Lee Jones. She departed this life on August 17, 2025. She was preceded in death by her cherished and loving husband Tommy McAdoo, her parents, Frank and Virgie Lee Jones, two brothers Darron and Perry, and two sisters Ola Janes and Frankie Smith.

She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at For The Love of God Churh in Heidelberg Mississippi. Later she became a devoted member of Total Deliverance and Restoration Ministry in Heidelberg and faithfully attended The Rock Church in Laurel Mississippi until her relocation.

She possessed a heart of gold and was deeply devoted to her family. Known for her compassion, she had a special desire to help those less fortunante and never hesitated to lend a hand. In her leisure time, she found joy in listaening to gospel music and relaxing with her favorit television shows, including Law & Order, Chicage P.D., Hawaii Five-O, S.W.A.T., and Criminal Minds. She also loved canning and preserving food for the winter, a skill that reflected both her resourcefulness and care for her family.

Her most cherished passtime was gathering with loved ones to play spades and entertain family and friends. Her warmth, loaughter and generosity will forever be remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her. She leaves behind a lasting legacy of faith, love, and kindness. To her family, she was a quiding light, to her friends, a loyal companion, and to her community, a servant-hearted soul. Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit will live on in the hearts of those who loved her, and her memory will continue to inspire for generations to come.

Sharon Jones McAdoo is survived by her loving brother, James (lou) Jones of Soso Mississippi; three sisters, Earnestine (Kerry) McLaurin of Louin, Mississippi, Velma (Tony) Robinson of Bay Springs Mississippi; and Mary (Wendale) Clayton of Paulding Mississippi and the McAdoo family of Bay Springs Mississippi. She leaves behind cherished memories from a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
