The Family

*Psalms 147:3-6
NKJV*

*He heals the brokenhearted
And binds up their wounds.
He counts the number of the stars;*

*He calls them all by name.
Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;*

*His understanding is infinite. The LORD lifts up the humble;
He cast the wicked down
to the ground.*

Reflections of Life

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

Wilson "Man" Nickens, Jr. was born July 29, 1950 in Lee County, Georgia to the late Mr. Wilson Nickens, Sr., and Mrs. Essie Mae Nickens.

He attended the Lee County School System and later went to Turner Job Corps where he learned his skill in brick masonry.

He was drafted by the United States Army where he served his term.

He was united in holy matrimony to the late Janie Kendrick, to their union they were blessed with two sons; Wilson Nickens, III and Edward Nickens who also preceded him in death.

On Friday, March 22, 2024 Wilson's earthly journey ended and he entered into eternal rest.

He was preceded in death by three sisters; Lillie Fleming, Rutha James and Carol Nickens and one brother Eddie Nickens.

He leaves to cherish his memories two sons; Wilson Nickens III and Travis Price. Two sisters; Annie Mary Davis of Leesburg, Georgia and Mamie (Shirman) Washington of Jacksonville, Florida. One brother; Sammie Nickens of Sarasota, Florida. Two grandchildren; Essence Nickens and Edwards Nickens, Jr. One great-grand Tadasia Price. Along with a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?" .. 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

Order of Service

*"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.
The former things have passed away."* Revelation 21:4

There is No Light Without a Dawning

by Helen Steiner Rice

No winter without a spring...And beyond the dark horizon
Our hearts will once more sing
For those who leave us for a while have only gone away
Out of a restless, care worn world Into a brighter day.
