*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*

Reflection of Life

Jacquelyn Davis known to her family and friends as "Jackie", was born on April 9, 1963, to the late Willie Davis and Lillian Peterson Davis in Albany, Georgia.

Very early in life, Jackie accepted Christ as her personal Lord and Savior. She loved the Lord and her faith and gratitude made her resilient. Jackie remained prayerful and steadfast in service while worshipping at various churches. She remained active until her health prevented her from active participation.

Jackie received her formal education in the Dougherty County School System. For numerous years she was employed at the Albany State University Dining Hall. No matter what the task, she always gave her best. She had a natural gift for serving others which was exemplified by the service shown to the students and staff she would come in contact with. Jackie was a devoted mother and grandmother. Having raised five children as a single mother with a limited education. She was determined that her children would achieve a far greater educational attainment. Those who encountered her often describe her as a caring, hardworking mother who provided unconditionally for her family. She will long be remembered for her warmth, kindness, and dedication to her family and friends.

On August 1, 2024, Jackie transitioned from this earthly life to eternal peace and rest. She was a beacon of light in the lives of all who knew and loved her. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Bessie Clay; and her brother, Nathaniel Peterson.

Jackie will be dearly missed and leaves behind to grieve: her son, Christopher Davis (Atlanta, Ga); four daughters, Shawanna (Maurice) Jones (Albany, Ga); Samantha Davis (Loganville, Ga) Ashley (Cory) Cratic (Lawrenceville, Ga) and Nicole Smith (Albany, Ga) eight grandchildren; Adrian Davis Sr. (Martinique), Charles Jones (Jasmine) Jeison Davis, Ry'Keria Davis, Kearia Davis, Marissa Jones, Jacorey Cratic and Madison Brown; two great-grandchildren: Amir Rawls and Adrian Davis Jr.; Sisters; Willie Ann (Northern) Stephens; Sandra (James) Sherman; Linda (Hank) Crews; Sharon Davis, Karen Davis, and Deborah Davis; Brothers; Bobby (Faye) Peterson and Willie Lee Peterson; Aunt, Wille Maude Douglas (Detroit, MI) all whom she loved dearly. She leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins extended family and friends who were all a part of her dear family.

THE DAY GOD Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When death occurs, family and friends gather to celebrate a life that was lived and to share the sorrow that is present. Often times, it is difficult for one's emotions to accept the loss of a loved one. The intellect understands what has happened but the emotional adjustments are difficult. We are extremely grateful to our friends and family for the generosity of time, love and gifts during our time of sorrow. To know that there are friends who really care makes the burden much easier to bear. As we trust in God, we know that Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
