

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

Obituary

Sister Dotty Delores Robinson was the twelfth child of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, and was born on November 3, 1942, in Jakin, Georgia.

She confessed and gave her life to Christ at an early age and joined Live Oak A.M.E. Church in Donalsonville, Georgia.

Once she finished and graduated high school in the Seminole County school system, she moved to The Bronx, New York, and worked diligently until she met the love of her life Robert Robinson in 1964. The two dated for several years until they decided to say, “I DO.” Then, in 1967, they were joined together in holy matrimony and they have been together sixty years, loving each other unconditionally.

She departed from life on September 20, 2024, at the Wilson Hospice House in Albany, Georgia.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Robert Robinson; her two children, daughter, Robin Deloris Robinson, and son Robert Robinson II; her three grandchildren, Amber J. Robinson, Jontejay Z. “TJ” Robinson, and Kaia B. Robinson; her last three living sisters, Jeantte Godwin, Alean McDonald, and Diann Howard (Edward); and a host of nieces, nephews, foster children, foster grandchildren, and other sorrowing family members and friends.
