

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

*I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.*

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Obituary

On August 12, 1966, at Calhoun Memorial Hospital in Arlington, GA, Jennifer Alisa Johns, a superstar, made her grand entrance into the world. She was born to the late Doneal Raymond Johns, Sr., and Josephine Harrison Johns and was cheerfully called Lisa or Jen.

She was preceded in death by her loving sister, Demetria L. Johns; maternal grandmother, Louise Harrison; paternal grandparents, Doneal Johns, Nora L. Johns Lee, and Sammie D. Lee; and her uncle & Father figure, Willie Rube Johns; four aunts; and one uncle.

Jennifer was educated in Randolph County and later Calhoun County School Systems, and she graduated from Calhoun County High in 1984. She was a proud Red Devil and was fiercely loyal to Cougar Nation. She studied Accounting and Finance at Albany Technical College.

Jennifer was a devoted member of Zion Pure Life Ministries for decades. Jennifer dedicated 25 years to the United States Postal Service as Sales and Service Associate before retiring. She tirelessly served as the current Secretary for the Georgia American Postal Workers Union.

Jennifer was a champion for anyone who needed help whether it was a ride to the doctor, doing paperwork, or paying bills. We can't forget her "culinary ministry" --her world-famous lemonade, and that irresistible orange marmalade chicken! On Wednesday and Friday night you would find Jen at Bingo, and without fail, she had a pair of sunglasses perched on her head.

On July 2, 2025, At Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital, God rendered the second opinion and showed up on the morning train for transport. She took her final bow and entered eternal rest.

Jennifer leaves behind a legacy of love that will echo for generations: her husband of 38 years, Robbin Loud; children, Robbin Jamario Loud and Charity Kadaisia Loud; two children that she raised as her own: Nicole Brown and Christine Woodard; grandchildren, Messiah Atkins and Ace Haynes; mother, Josephine Harrison Johns; siblings, Cedric (Gaylin) Williams, Doneal R. Johns, Jr., and Xandayle Flounroy; sister-in-law, Shenita Loud; numerous goddaughters; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and classmates.
