Reginald was educated in the Dougherty County School System, graduating from Westover High School. After graduation he enlisted in the USMC and served 4 years. He ended his term with an Honorable Discharge as a LCPL also receiving several decorations, medals and badges, which included Rifle Marksman Marksmanship.

Upon returning home to Albany, Georgia Reginald became employed at Firestone as a Tire Selector for a while and then moved onto truck driving school. He received his certificate to drive tractor trailers and obtained his CDL license and move on to employment with Dougherty County-Public Works for nineteen years. He also obtained his certification to become a Correctional Officer and worked with the Lee County Prison System.

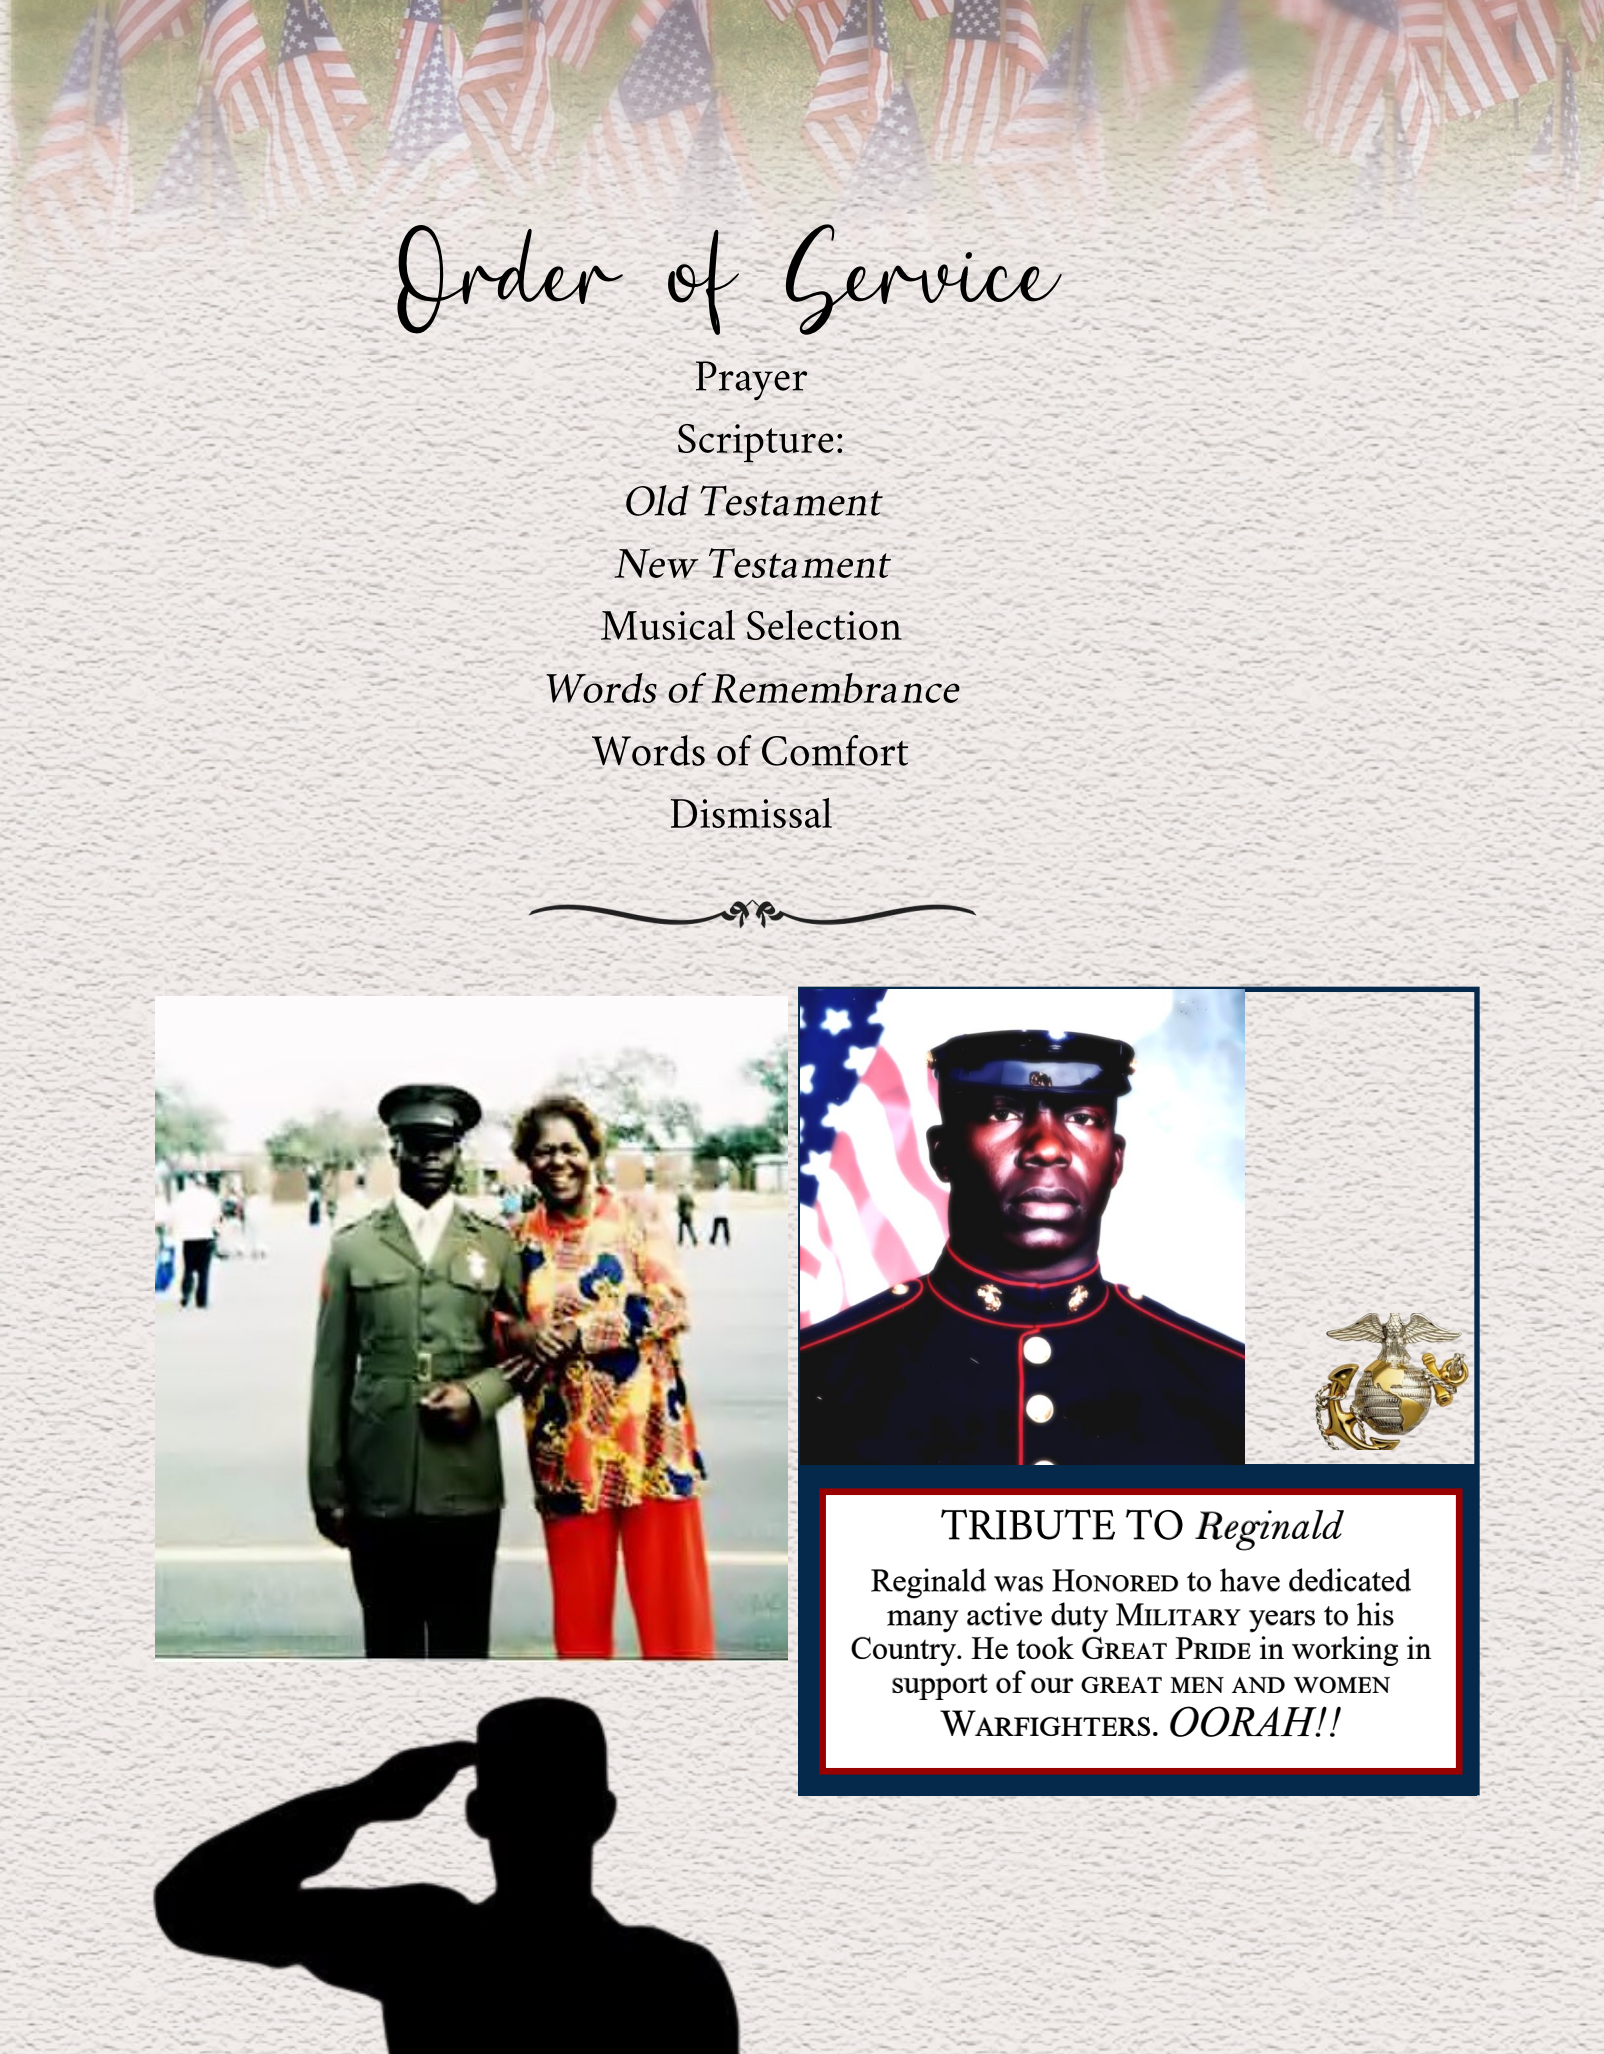

Reginald was a hard worker with a great personality. He enjoyed life and loved his family. He had one child, a son, Reginald Robinson Jr. that he leaves to carry on his name.

Reginald leaves to cherish his memory, three brothers; Timothy Madison of Tampa, Florida, Warren Sims of Florida, Willie Robinson, Jr., of Albany, Georgia. Two sisters; Helen D. (Calvin) Madison and Annie Doris Robinson-Dean both of Albany, Georgia. A cousin “more like a baby sister” Wendy McKinzie. His lady friend Shamonica Green. Three nieces, one great nephew and a host of cousins, family and friends.

♥MY BROTHER♥

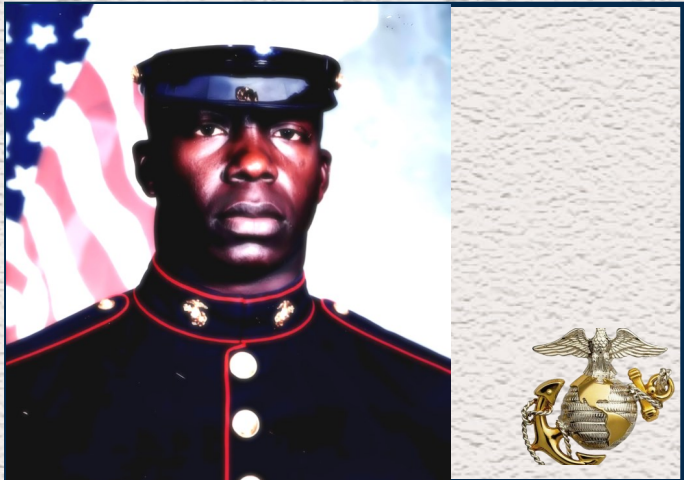

It was hard to watch as you lay there hurting in pain, I wished that I could have taken your pain away. I prayed for your healing and God heard my prayers and stepped in and called you home. I wanted you to stay, but your sleep seemed so peaceful. No more pain and suffering, you are now at peace and so am I, knowing that you are in a better place. No more tears, I'll miss you dearly.

*“This is My commandment: love each other in the same way I have loved you. There is no Greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.
