Obituary

Reverend John Henry Walker, Sr. (affectionally known as “Rev”) was born March 21, 1943 to the late Rev. Dolphus Walker Sr. and the late Mrs. Roberta Knighton Walker in Dougherty County, Georgia. Rev. Walker married Dorothy Ellis. This union was blessed with four beautiful children.

Rev. Walker attended schools in the Dougherty County School System and was a proud graduate of Monroe High School Class of 1963 where he played football. At a young age, Rev became a member of Arcadia Missionary Baptist Church. He later joined Third Kiokee Baptist Church where he was a faithful member until his decline in health. Rev served in many capacities. One of his favorites was singing in the choir. He was particularly known for the song “Peace Be Still”.

Rev’s career spanned several jobs - he was an orderly at Phoebe Hospital, a mechanic at Aero Commanders and later, a manager at The Albany and Macon Times Newspaper. Rev was called to serve in the ministry as a young adult. His philosophy was that your word is your bond. If you said it, mean it, do it. Rev had a humble spirit full of gratitude. He was grateful for EVERYTHING. If you visited him – thank you, if you called – thank you, if you turned him – thank you, if you shaved him – thank you. Whatever it was – he was thankful, and you knew it because he told you – always thanking you, always thanking Jesus. Lastly, daddy was always “wonderful”. For someone bedridden and dependent on the aid of others, he never has a sad spirit. He was always wonderful. If he said anything else, it was time to dial 911. His precious memories will be with us forever.

Rev Walker was proceeded in death by his son: John Henry Walker Jr.; great grandson: Karsyn Lee; his siblings: William Walker, Berta Shaw, Lawrence (LW) Walker, Lizzie Walker, Dolphus Walker Jr.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory; four devoted daughters: Cassandra (Maverick) McKinney, Angela Muff, Marilyn (Eddie) Lusane, Jasmine Randall; one son: Montravis Randall; two loving sisters: Dianne Walker and Lorene W.M. (Arthur) Fields; two brothers: Roosevelt (Laura) Walker, Odell Walker all of Albany GA. Rev Walker also leaves behind seven grandchildren: LaDeirdra Muff, Brandon Chambers, Whitley Wilkerson, Dontevius Muff, Alvin Butler, John Wakefield, Rasheme Stephens; thirteen great grands: Jaylin Luke, Jayshawn Mayberry, Isaiah Chambers, Alayna Gordon, Maleah Muff, Aidyn McKinney, Heavenly Wilkerson, Aaliyah Gordon, Caleb Wilkerson, Aubree Shine, Asher McKinney, Khalil Wilkerson, Ace Chambers.

Rev. Walker’s legacy of love, humbleness and gratitude will live on for generations to come.

Psalm 23

*The Lord was Daddy’s shepherd
He made him to lie down in green pastures,
The Lord led him beside the still waters; He restoreth Daddy’s soul,
The Lord led Daddy in the path of righteousness for His name sake,
Yea though Daddy walked through the valley of shadow of death, he feared no evil;
For the Lord comforted him; for the Lord comforted him.*
