

I'm free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

REMEMBERING ELISIE Hunt

The extraordinary life of Elisie Hunt began September 14, 1944 In Warrenton, North Carolina. She was the 1st born of 7 children to Alice McDougal and Weldon Robinson. She was proceed in death by her beloved husband, Fred D. Hunt, and her son, Milton Bert.

Elise left North Carolina for a short period of time relocating to Newark, New Jersey where she married the love of her life and raised four children. She was a licensed beautician, CNA, a caregiver to many, also the mother of the church.

Elisie was a mother figure to many. No one would go without, she always sacrificed her time to make sure everyone was good or ok. She was well known for her cooking skills loved by many. In her later years she became a great ball of fire, taking daily walks and becoming the mother of her neighborhood, well liked by many and will be truly missed.

She leave to mourn: 2 daughters, Cleo Hunt (Delaware), and Synetha Hunt (NJ); 1 son Reginald Hunt (NJ); 2 God-daughters, Yvette Eargle (New Jersey) and Tamara Hunt (New Jersey); 1 sister, Nora Lee (NC); 1 brother, Weldon Robison Jr (PA); 3 sister-in-laws, Cleo P Hunt (NJ), Cinderella Hunt (VA), and Diane Williams (New Mexico); 1 brother in-law, Kenneth Williams (New Mexico). She is also survived by her 31 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
