Life Story

Cheryl Ann Blake Parrish was born on April 25, 1956, to Fred and Annie Lou Blake. She attended the public schools of Camden County and was a graduate of Camden County High School, Class of 1974. She worked as a custodian at Crooked River Elementary School for twenty years. She enjoyed spending time with her grandkids, family and friends. Her life was dedicated to serving God as the First Lady of Mount Zion Baptist Church (Waverly, Georgia) and New Zion Baptist Church (Buck Swamp Community) Brunswick, Georgia.

Cheryl was preceded in death by both parents: Freddie and Annie Lou Blake; sister: Earlene Blake and brothers: Richard Blake and Ricky Blake.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband: Pastor Levy Parrish, Jr.; children: Carlos Parrish, Kingsland, GA and Sequilla Mullen, Columbia, SC; siblings: Freddie Lockley, Easter Crum (Boston), Jessie Blake and Gary Blake (Cynthia); sisters-in-law: Pamela Blake, Queen Dawson, Angie Jordan and Ora Lee Gaston (George); brothers-in-law: Roosevelt Parrish (Kimberly), Leroy Parrish (Shannon), Ronnie Parrish (Lore-Ann), Donnie Parrish (Tammy) and Bob Parrish (Laura Lee); grandchildren: Tatiana Parrish, Dominique Harper, Jamarion Harper and Je'mere Mullen; great-grandson: Trentyn; special niece: Sean Tookes and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
