Obituary

God gives good gifts... and on February 27, 1933 he blessed Frank Travick and Ada Boyd Travick with a bouncing baby boy and they named him James.

James grew up in the Greenwood Community and received his education in the Chambers County School System. He confessed Christ at an early age and joined Greenwood Baptist Church in Lanett, Alabama where he served for many years as an ordained Deacon. Later, he united with Mt. Nebo Baptist Church in Cusseta, Alabama.

He was an industrious person and worked many years for West Point Pepperell Mills and as a very skilled auto mechanic. His hobbies included fishing, hunting, watching sports, playing checkers, and singing.

He was preceded in death by: his parents, Frank Travick and Ada Travick; his beloved wife of 60 plus years, Missouri Reese Travis; a son, Norbert E. Travis; grandson, Jarvis Travis; great-grandsons, D'Martino Travis and Quay Banks; six brothers, four sisters, six brothers-in-law, and two sisters-in-law.

After a brief illness, God called him to receive his eternal reward on Tuesday, January 30, 2024.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: his loving and devoted son, Jarvis Keith (Dorothy) Travis, Lanett, AL; daughters, Sheila Lovelace, Stone Mountain, GA, Joanne (Calvin) Williams, West Point, GA and Patricia Crump, Opelika, AL; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Sceabron (Betty) Travick, one brother-in-law, Eddie Reese; those he affectionately called his children, Brenda and Gary Wright; devoted caregivers, Mary and Marvin Reese; and, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I MADE IT HOME

I just wanted to let you know that

I made it home.

Everything is so pretty here,

so white, so fresh, so new.

I wish that you could close your eyes

So you could see it too.

Please try not to be sad for me.
