Obituary

Estella McCulloh Davis was born April 18, 1934 to Mr. John McCulloh and Mrs. Minnie Pearl Griffin McCulloh of Lee County, Alabama.

Mrs. Davis confessed Christ at an early age and joined the Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the Reverend R. C. Gates. She worked faithfully as a member of the Missionary Society, with other auxiliaries of the church, and served as President of the Pastor’s Aide.

Mrs. Davis attended elementary school at Pleasant Hill in the Beulah Community and graduated from Lanier High School in Lanett, Alabama. After she married in 1955, she and her husband moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where they connected with family who migrated there earlier. While living in West Philadelphia, she united with the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, worked and made lifelong friends. She continued her education and received a nursing degree, which lead to a professional career as a nurse at Home of the Merciful Savior for Crippled Children (HMS), the first institution of its kind in the nation. She worked at HMS for many years until she retired. She moved back to Valley in 1999 where she reconnected with family and reunited with her home church—Pleasant Hill, working faithfully with various ministries.

She loved her family immensely. Even though she lived many years in Philadelphia, she always came home to visit her parents, sisters, and other relatives. She was a loving aunt to her nieces and nephews and showed it in numerous ways. Her generous spirit was displayed through her passion for helping others. Her hobbies included a love of fashion and baking. For her, shopping was an art form and she had an eye for aesthetically designed pieces. She baked cakes and candy, mostly to give as gifts to friends and family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Charlie Homer Davis; parents, John and Minnie Pearl McCulloh; and four sisters, Mattie Stephens, Hattie Murphy, Rhoda McCulloh and Nan Cochran. Estella M. Davis departed this life peacefully on Friday, May 24, 2024.

To cherish precious memories shared with her are: two sisters, Elease Carter, Valley, AL and Louise Walker, Burlington, NC; sister-in-law, Sallye Mae Davis, Cusseta, AL; two god-daughters, Mia Gibson, Valley, AL and Jonetta Gibbs, Philadelphia, PA; one god-son, Richard M. Gibson, Valley, AL; and, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

IN OUR HEARTS

THOSE WE LOVE DON'T GO AWAY,
THEY WALK BESIDE US EVERYDAY,
UNSEEN, UNHEARD,
BUT ALWAYS NEAR,
STILL LOVED, STILL MISSED
AND VERY DEAR.
