REFLECTIONS

Mr. Porter Holloway was born February 25, 1930 to the parentage of the late Mr. Ben Holloway and Mrs. Fannie Mae Pugh Holloway in Waverly Hall, Georgia. He received Christ at an early age and, discovered his talent for singing. He traveled the country singing with various gospel groups. He was an ordained and devoted Deacon.

One day as Porter was on one of his adventurous journeys, he crossed paths with Ms. Bertha Louise Willis who became the love of his life. On August 21, 1971, she became his wife until her death. He was employed by The Georgia Department of Transportation for 34 plus years.

His hobbies and favorite pass times consisted of rabbit hunting, playing cards, watching baseball and softball, playing checkers and, most of all going fishing with family and friends.
