

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for I am free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found sweet peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I, too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart in peace to thee.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.

Obituary

Chetreile, affectionately known to some as Treile, Chop, Dad, or Bro, departed this world on Friday, April 25, 2025. Chetreile Markeia Huguley was born April 23, 1978, first born son to Chester C. Smith and the late Mary J Huguley-Humphrey in Valley, Alabama. Being born on his grandmother’s birthday Chetreile came into this world, being his grandmother’s pride and joy, the late Janie Mae Huguley. Chetreile grew up in Valley Alabama in which he attended the Valley public school system. Chetreile played football in high school. He loved the sport, and he loved watching his favorite team the University of Alabama, Treile was a diehard Alabama Crimson Tide fan in which he would yell often “Roll Tide”. Chetreile graduated from Valley High School in 1997.

Chetreile and his best friend Jermel Pace joined the Masons in Valley, AL. In 2000 Ivory Jakia made her debut followed by Nia Jeane, Reina Kiche and Kendal Christan. Chetreile started long haul truck driving with Western Express in 2002 and then transferred to USA Truck, Inc. Chetreile loved his children very much, they were his heart beats. He always wanted to be able to provide for them.

In 2008 Chetreile moved to Boston MA where he began a life with Krystena Bradshaw. In 2009 he joined the Church of God and Saints of Christ in Boston where he was baptized under the late Evangelist-at-Large James N Bradshaw. August 22, 2010 Chetreile and Krystena were married in holy matrimony and from this union Malachi K Huguley was born in November of 2014. April 20, 2015, Chetreile was ordained as a Deacon where he served in Boston, MA. Chetreile loved to cook for his family every Sunday morning where he would create big southern breakfasts from biscuits, his egg casserole, fried fish, cheddar cheese grits and bacon. Chetreile loved to watch people enjoy his food at every family gathering such as Thanksgiving or special occasions. You could guarantee he would be found in the kitchen preparing his famous baked macaroni and cheese or his delicious collard greens or fried chicken. Chetreile was a master on the grill, his BBQ sauce and his marinades made the cookouts even more pleasant to attend. If you walked in the kitchen, you could always hear music being blasted while he was cooking listening to the Blues, gospel music or R&B, he just loved music.

Chetreile loved being around his family, anytime there was a card game going on, you could rest assure that he was already sitting at the table smiling from ear to ear and ready to talk smack as he slapped the cards on the table. He was a smooth dresser and would always light up the room whenever he walked in the room with the scent of his cologne. Chetreile loved to dance and didn’t mind doing his Chicago stepping. Treile loved to talk and if you got on the phone with him, he would keep you on for more than hour. Some his favorite sayings were “Hey it is what it is” or “Go head on with that”.

He was no stranger to hard work, he worked various jobs from long haul driving, security, to Department social services counselor, Utility Locate Technician at USIC. But his first love was truck driving. Treile loved to drive, he would often take it upon himself to offer to drive his pastor Elder George Bruce or his family to any out-of-town church conventions or family vacations. With his large coffee in his hand and music playlist, he was prepared to drive anywhere you wanted him to take you. He loved driving so much that he decided to go back to long haul driving in 2024 with Swift Transportation. On April 25th, 2025, Chetreile made his last run and God seen that he was tired and called him home.

Chetreile is preceded in death by his mother Mary Jean Huguley- Humphrey. His grandparents Clifford and Mattie Smith, Janie Mae Huguley and John Tucker.
