Obituary

Carolyn “Cookie” Truitt, was born January 24, 1950, in Fairfax, Alabama, passed away peacefully in her sleep in Valley, Alabama, on December 4, 2025. She was 75 years old.

Known lovingly as “Cookie”, she was truly sweet as her name. Growing up, she was the fun and stylish aunt everyone wanted to be around—the “cool Auntie”. She took her nieces to get their ears pierced (much to her sister’s shock and fury, which still brings smiles and laughter to the family). Auntie Cookie took the children to movies, fun outings, and adventures because she wanted them to experience joy. She would always do our hair so pretty for our school pictures. She required hugs and kisses from every acquaintance.

Her home was always the place to be—a space filled with energy, warmth, and memories. In Boston, she threw the best parties, ones that family and friends still talk about today.

Cookie made Alabama her home after relocating in April of 1992, and she continued to be a source of joy and hospitality. She lived to entertain and always welcomed people with open arms and delicious food. Her liver with onion gravy over rice was legendary, and her macaroni salad became a staple at gatherings. Cooking was her love language.

Stylish to her core, Cookie absolutely adored clothes—she had more than she needed but exactly as many as she wanted. Her outfits were always on point, perfectly coordinated from her shoes to her pocketbook, to her accessories. Her daughter, Aundrea, carries that same sense of style, a gift passed down with love.

Cookie cherished her family deeply and constantly encouraged closeness, togetherness, and unity. Her faith was a guiding part of her life; she believed in Christ and established a relationship with Him early on, grounding her spirit with strength and grace.

Carolyn was preceded in death by: her parents, Ruby Lee Truitt and Josephine James Truitt; her lifelong best girlfriend, Corine Jews; and, her longtime love, Mr. Leon Marshall. Cookie was the last surviving sibling in her family, yet she never stopped loving, giving, and creating joy for everyone around her.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Keith Truitt, Bessemer, AL; her devoted daughter, Aundrea Truitt, Valley, AL, who lovingly cared for her until her passing.; her grandchildren, Alyssa Breen, Boston, MA, Bianca T. Gay (Kevin) Cormier, Dallas, TX; three great-grandchildren, Shawn, Jah'nya, and Jakari Cormier, Dallas, TX; her oldest uncle, Joseph James; nephew, Anthony Jeffreys, Cusseta, AL; nieces, Robin Jeffreys, Boston, MA, Desiree (Arthur) Potts, Wetumpka, AL, and Titia Jeffreys, Boston, MA; oldest cousin, Alton Tucker; nieces and nephews; a host of cousins, family members, friends, and many other special friends who often referred to her as momma. She also leaves behind her cherished fur baby, Leili, who brought her endless comfort.

Her sweet spirit, her style, her humor, and her love will be deeply missed. But, her legacy lives on in the family she cherished and the countless memories she created.

No matter what I do, my mind is always full of you

Your devoted daughter,
Aundrea

We miss you.

She was more than just an aunt to me. Cookie was the one person, since I was a young kid, that I could always talk to about everything. She actually taught me a lot about the streets and about life in general. Our favorite spots back in the day in Baston was Jamaican food or Steak and Cheese at Ugi's Subs. She loved to ride out with me and of course eat. My road dawg will be truly missed

Your favorite nephew,
Tony

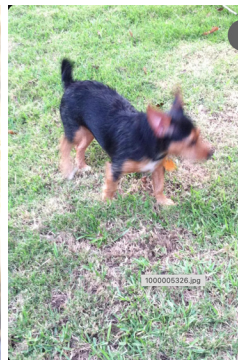

To my Auntie Cookie:

For as long as I can remember, the special nickname you always called me was, "Nana". Anytime I came to visit you, you smiled and said "Hey Nana". It always made me smile and laugh. I'll always miss you and LOVE YOU FOREVER!!

Your Nana,
Alyssa Jeffreys
