Reflections of Life

Heaven is a more beautiful place today because another rose has been added to the Celestial Rose Garden. Today, Juliette has transcended her body, and her soul shall hurt no more. She is home at last and peace will be with her in eternity. Amen and Amen.

Ms. Juliette Slaughter Holloway was born May 29, 1934, to the late Mr. Denson Slaughter and the late Ms. Elizabeth Glaze, in Chambers County, “White Plains Community”, Alabama—also known as Chapel Hill. In her early childhood, she relocated to LaFayette, Alabama where she called home.

Juliette departed this earthly life and entered eternal life on August 6, 2026, while her devoted daughter, Mary Julia was singing and praying at her side.

She confessed Christ at an early age at the Pine Grove United Methodist Church, and later in her youth, united with Friendship Baptist Church #2 in the Buffalo Community of LaFayette where she was a faithful servant. She served for a decade as President of the Usher Board, and chief usher. She was also very active in the Missionary Society, and her contribution to the kitchen was her tasty cornbread. She loved her Friendship Church Family and continued to serve under the present leadership of Pastor Curtis Spidell until her health began to decline.

She was employed at Chambers County Hospital as a Housekeeping Supervisor for 25+ years, until the hospital closed. She later gained employment at George H. Lanier Memorial Hospital in Valley, Alabama and was Housekeeping Supervisor for 10 years and 5 months until she retired.

Juliette was quiet spirited and soft spoken. Her hobbies included cooking—no one could top her famous homemade biscuits. She was a Big Fan of WWE wrestling, and enjoyed conversing and watching wrestling with her great-grandson, Timothy Silmon, Jr. She also enjoyed going to WWE wrestling events in Atlanta with her die heart WWE wrestling buddy/cousin, Darnell Holliman. She also enjoyed fishing, and playing dominoes with her children, grandchildren, family, friends, and neighbors—earning the name, “Dominoes Queen”.

She was a very loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, and god-mother to many. She will always be remembered for her unconditional love, unwavering support, selflessness, and willingness to sacrifice for the well-being of her family, friends, and her community.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: two sons, Clinton Holloway and Larry Holloway; two daughters, Dorothy Parkmond, and her loving, devoted caregivers Elder Mary Boykin and her husband Donnie; a very supportive granddaughter, Malanda J. Boykin; two step-children, James King and Peggy King; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren; one aunt, Beatrice Glaze; special cousins, Mary Ann Harris and Otis Glaze, who she helped to rear; a god-daughter, Linda Haynes; and, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the maker's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me but let me go.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family of Ms. Juliette Slaughter Holloway

PSALM 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
