

It's So Hard To Say Goodbye

*How do I say goodbye to what we had?
The good times that made us laugh
Outweigh the bad
...I thought we'd get to see forever
But forever's gone away
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday
...I don't know where this road
Is going to lead
All I know is where we've been
And what we've been through
...And if we get to see tomorrow
I hope it's worth all the wait
It's hard to say goodbye to yesterday
...And I'll take with me the memories
To be my sunshine after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday
...And I'll take with me the memories
To be my sunshine after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday*

OBITUARY

Albert Louis Autry was born on September 12, 1954, in Chambers County, Alabama, to the late William and Willie Pearl Stiggers Autry. He departed this life peacefully on Sunday, August 18, 2024, at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama.

At an early age, Albert accepted Christ and joined Goodsell United Methodist Church in Lanett, Alabama. His faith was a cornerstone of his life, and he was an active participant in church activities, finding joy and purpose in his spiritual community.

He was known for his dedication to his family and his big personality. He enjoyed spending time with his family, especially during gatherings and celebrations.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by three brothers and two sisters: Jessie B. Autry, William Lee Autry, Tommy Lee Autry, Lula Mae Dunn, and Ophelia Baker.

His loving memories will be cherished by his loving wife, Cindy Autry of Lanett, Alabama; children, Shermeka (Christopher) Wright, Latocka Autry, Mykiel Autry, Orlando Autry, Albert (Lil Albert) Autry, Conrado (Tammy) McGhee, Roderick McGhee, and Broderick McGhee; grandchildren, Shontorry, Yoshianna, Zylissia, Terrance, Selene, Tavaréz, Tyjuan, Destiny, and Bradyn; great-grandchildren, Dayson and Krisslyn; sister, Barbara Autry Tall; sisters-in-law, Willie “Pam” Autry, Barbara Autry, Josephine (George) Myhand, and Charlotte Sharpe; brother-in-law, Lonnie McGhee; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, dedicated neighbors, and friends; special friends Gregory Boozer and Reverend Kelsey Barnes.
