

Because of memories you'll never fade away, and that keeps you with me everyday Although the sting of death took you away, I'll be thinking of you every breath I take

The pain is overwhelming sometimes, especially when thoughts of you are heavily upon my mind Even if my eyes are without tears deep inside my heart is still crying missing you is something mere words can't convey

When you left a part of me went away
 The emotions I feel when I hear certain songs, reminds me that sadness is intense and strong, yet, life forces me to move on Missing you there are no words to explain, there's no remedy or prescription to take away this pain It's like an unremovable stain

Loss of a love one is a tremendous thing to bear, it doesn't matter if you're in a crowd or you're all alone and no one is there the truth is it really doesn't matter what I do, deep down inside of me I'll always be missing you

Lateshia Life's Reflections

Lateshia Ann Williams was born on October 1, 1975, in Chambers County, AL, to the late Luella Williams and the late Hubert Trammell. She departed this life on Friday, June 27, 2025, in Richmond CA, where she was cared for by her brother Frederick and his family.

“Shea-Shea”, as she was affectionately known, was a beloved member of Canaan Missionary Baptist Church in Roanoke, Alabama. Shea-Shea also attended Valley Haven School in Valley, Alabama, where she was cared for and supported.

She was special, not because of her disability, but because she had a special spirit. She had a way of letting you know her feelings and preferences with a look of joy from her beautiful brown eyes or the pout of her lips when she didn't like something. Even though she could not walk or talk, her spirit spoke volumes. She leaves a legacy of unconditional love and radiant light. She was pure love, a person who touched every heart and reminded us of God's deepest grace.

Like her late mother, Shea-Shea enjoyed listening to gospel music, watching Westerns on television, eating good food, attending family gatherings, and going to church. A beloved daughter, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, niece, and cousin, we were blessed to be in her light, and we will cherish the memories we have of her.

Lateshia leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted brothers, Frederick Williams (Ruthanne) of Richmond, CA, Ocie Williams (Patricia) and Tyson Williams both of Oakland, CA, Jeffrey Trammell, of Lanett, AL; two aunts, Martha Griffin of Lanett, AL, and Nancy McFarlin of Ozark, AL, a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family and a community that loved her.
