DON'T CRY FOR ME

Don't sit there and cry for me; I'm resting in peace can't you see? Now, I want to see my Savior's face, so dry your tears and stop your crying. Don't worry about my dying. This a debt we all must pay, We all must sleep away. Don't cry for me; please be strong. You'll be sad, but not for long. I want you to make preparation every day to get ready to come my way. I was with you for many years. We had our cheers. But now I'm gone, look up and smile. Thank God that I was with you for a while. Get your ticket and make sure your house is in order, then come on up to your eternal home. I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many wonderful years. I gave to you My love. You can only guess how much happiness you gave to me. I thank you for the love you have each shown, but now it's time I travel alone, so grieve for me a while if you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away; for life goes on, so if you need me, Call, and I will come through. You can't see me or touch me. I'll be near and then when you must come this way alone. I'll greet you and say, welcome to your eternal home.
