CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

EDGAR ANTONIO ROMERO GONZALEZ

...IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER AND ALWAYS...

Edgar Antonio Romero Gonzalez was born on May 15, 2004 in Aldea Aqua Blanco San Juan Ostuncalco, Guatemala. He was an extraordinary young man. He started working in the fields from a very young age. At the age of 15 he decided to come to the United States in search of a better future and to be able to help his family; and with the help of God he managed to reach the United States where he spent five years in Union Springs, Alabama. During that period he dedicated himself to earning a living by working with humility. There he married Jennifer and had his first child, Keilany Romero Perez. Edgar Romero was the 5th child of 7 siblings.

His memories will be cherished by his wife, Jennifer Perez Romero; his daughter, Keilany Romero; his parents, Gonzalo Romero and Bernarda Gonzalez Perez; his siblings: Araceli Romero Gonzalez, Elvira Romero Gonzalez, Fidelina Romero Gonzalez, Marissa Romero Gonzalez, Dionicio Romero Gonzalez, and Emanuel Romero Gonzalez.

One scripture we can look to for comfort is Psalm 10:17, which reminds us that God hears all our pleas as we navigate through the pain of missing someone. God knows our pain; after all, He also lost someone dear to Him once: His only son, Jesus Christ. If anyone knows your pain, it's God. He can bring us consolation as we struggle with our grief.
