

Services Entrusted to

PAYNE FUNERAL HOME
2119 West 10th St.
Indianapolis, IN 46202

2ELEVEN
BY PAYNE

In Loving Memory

Sivian Williamson

Sunrise
January 12, 1934

Sunset
April 18, 2024

Sunday, May 5, 2024
Service: 2:30 p.m.

PAYNE FUNERAL HOME
2119 West 10th Street, Indianapolis, Indiana

Brief Sketch of Life

VIVIAN WILLIAMSON, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2024 at community East hospital; surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on January, 12th 1934, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Ethel and Charlie Brown.

She was a proud resident of Ohio and was a 1952 graduate of Woodward High School. Vivian Williamson was predeceased by Father Charlie Brown, Mother Ethel also son Ronnie Boyd, Jimmy Boyd, Price Williamson, best friend Shirley. Meme leaves behind Daughter Pauletta Boyd, 3 grandchildren Tony Boyd, Tonya Boyd, Terri Boyd and Tiffany Arnold-(Boyd). 11 great-great grandchildren and 9 great great great grandchildren.

Vivian better known as Meme was a nurse, a childcare provider and dedicated her community service at a woman's shelter every year. Her cooking was phenomenal as she is known for her flavorful mustard greens, pork chops and many more delicious dishes. She loved dancing, and listening to her Jazz music.

Meme was a fearful woman of Christ who taught everyone she crossed paths with about the Holy Bible. Meme was a family woman who loved seeing her loved ones gather for a good time. Her favorite saying was "by and by".

Meme will be truly missed and we will always carry her memory in our hearts.

Order of Service

GREETINGS

FAMILY AND FRIENDS REFLECTIONS

POEM

LaDejua Radford

Family Acknowledgement

*With sincere appreciation, we wish to thank our many friends for the expressions of kindness during our bereavement for our loved one.
May God bless each of you.*

