Obituary

Delsenia "Dell" G. Thompson

Maya Angelou said "I am a woman phenomenally. Phenomenal woman that's me." Anyone who knew Dell knew that if there ever was a word to describe her this was the one. Phenomenal woman oh yes that was she, from womb until the day God called her home. Delsenia was blessed with a resilient spirit, and she made sure to thank God (Yahweh) ever day in every way. Some of you knew her as sis, ma, Aunt Dell, Mrs. T, Mrs. Dell, grandma, or just plain old Dell. No matter what you called her you knew she was a phenomenal woman, who offered blessed words of wisdom. From Delsenia's (Dell's) calming demeanor to her sassy comebacks, she spoke her mind with kindness and a smile. (Judging by the head nods I think most of you would agree.) "Phenomenal woman" that was she.

Delsenia "Dell" G. Thompson was born on March 9, 1951 in Tuberville, SC to her parents the late Lillian (Wells) and Roy Gamble. Delsenia had seven siblings: Joseph (Linda M. special friend), the late Landa (Nathaniel) Epps, Helen (Vernal) Howard, the late Loretta (Lavern) Rose, the late Diane (Eugene) Wilson, and Ella (Daniel) Prince. Delsenia attended Walker-Gamble schools and in 1968 she graduated high school. Delsenia met her husband the late Payton Dewey Thompson and moved to Hemingway, SC and started their family. Together they raised their 9 children and nephew: Pamela (Kevin) Young, Tamitha Woodall, Ricky (Monica) Thompson, Lawanda (Gerald) Davis, Martina (Jermaine) Mitchell, Monica (Mike) Salters, Chrystal (Curtis) Dukes, Troy Thompson, Kendall (William) Holbrook and nephew the late Tony (Angela) Thompson. Delsenia worked as a seamstress in Hemingway SC, making friends at every stop. She also worked at Food Lion grocery store while in Hemingway and Myrtle Beach SC. Her friends can tell you there was never a dull moment with Dell.

Delsenia later moved to New Jersey where she obtained her C.N.A license and worked at South Jersey Extended Care nursing home. She was a strong advocate for her patients and gave the utmost care and concern for everyone. Her motto, "treat everyone as if they were your family." Anyone who knew Dell knew that she raved about her family. From her loving parents to her outgoing siblings, to her exceptional nine kids, 28 grandkids and 7 great grandkids she praised them all. She held a special place in her heart for a host of beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins. Dell loved family gatherings and did her best not to miss a family event. She enjoyed traveling, shopping at Boscov's, listening to gospel music, gardening, dancing, and taking care of others. She was also quite handy. She could fix nearly anything and would gladly supervise any of your handywork with a smile. Let us not forget how she would cut up with her siblings at these family gatherings or how she would have, quote, "teatime" end quote, with her "Golden Girls," in New Jersey. Delsenia "Dell" was loved within her family as well as the community. In her 72 years of life, she honored our heavenly Father and now may she Rest in Paradise.

POEM

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

SINCERE THANKS

Thank you for your kind expression of sympathy and thoughtfulness. It is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.
