

Acknowledgments

~ We, the Family of the late Richard "PAT" Campbell acknowledge with sincere appreciation your prayers, loving thoughts, and the many deeds of kindness extended during our bereavement. May God bless each of you and continue to let his peace and love reign in your lives.

*I'm sorry I slept away,
Without a word, without delay.
I slipped away, no warning given,
Leaving hearts unprepared, hearts riven.*

*I knew you loved me, as I loved you,
Through every storm, through skies of blue.
But my work on earth was done, you see,
God called me home to set me free.*

*My duties here, they were complete,
A journey's end, a soul's retreat.
I felt His hand, so warm, so near,
And knew the time had come, my dear.*

*I ask you now, forgive my flaws,
The cracks, the breaks, the jagged cause.
Life's ups and downs, its twists and turns,
Through every trial, my heart still yearned.*

*For you, my family, my strength, my light,
You held me close through darkest night.
Your love, a fortress, steady, strong,
It carried me when things went wrong.*

*But when the quiet moments came,
And no one saw, I felt no shame.
I chose to go, to find my rest,
To lay my burdens, to be blessed.*

*This is not goodbye, my loves, not true,
It's "see you later," I'll wait for you.
I've found my place, my heavenly choir,
My drumsticks ready, my soul on fire.*

*My name's engraved, my seat prepared,
My bags were packed, my heart declared.
Now I sing with angels, pure and bright,
A symphony of joy, eternal light.*

*So hold my love, and let it guide,
Through every tear, through every tide.
For I am home, and I am free,
And one day soon, you'll join with me.*

*With all my heart, I'll always stay,
Your Pat, your love, in every way.
Until we meet, in heaven's embrace,
I'll sing for you, in that holy place.*

Love, Pat Campbell

THE LIFE OF RICHARD “PAT” CAMPBELL

JANUARY 14. 1968 - FEBRUARY 15. 2025

Mr. Richard Patrick Campbell, born in Dillon, SC on January 14, 1968, to the late Annie Bell Campbel and Daniel (Belle) James, departed this life on February 15, 2025, at his residence. He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents who reared him in the Little Rock Community, Jack and Frances Campbell and brother Eugene Paige.

Affectionately called “Pat” he was nurtured in his family’s congregation, the Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church in Little Rock, SC. It was there that he began his spiritual journey, learning about Christ under the tutelage of his grandmother andaunt Ruby Paige, with being impacted by his village and familyof the Paige’s,McInnis, Macks, and McNeil’s

Pat was a graduate of Dillon High School Class of 1987, as well as a member of Wonder Lodge No. 459. Pat was a founding member of the Stanley Singers (the brothers whom he never had), which was aloo the youngest gospel group in Dillon, South Carolina, under the direction of his uncle Renzolo “BO” Mack.It was then that he embraced his passion for music, singing, and drumming. Pat’s talent and dedication as a musician allowed him to sing for numerous of groups such as The Hebrewettes,Lil Ricky and The McDuffie Singers, Unity, Brothers in Christ, New Chosen Disciples and many others. He rendered his gift to many churches in Dillon County along the lines North Carolina, bringing joy and inspiration through his music.

A true servant of the community, Pat dedicated himself to helping those in need. His faithful service began at the age of 15 working under the late Rosanna King, Samuel Williams, and Samuel Bartell at Mutual Funeral Home. Pat later in life, after being injured by his manufacturing job, went to what he knew and started working under the leadership of the late Elder KevinThomas and the House of Thomas Funeral Home along with his family at Thomas Florist with Georgie and Jackie Thomas. Pat’s final years he continues to serve the community with his additional family Dr. Flossie Bartell and her Children and the Bartell Funeral Home Staff where he received numerous awards and accolades, he exemplified his unwavering commitment to making a difference in the lives of others. Pat enjoyed simple pleasures, such as cutting grass and providing transportation. He was always ready to lend a helping hand.

Pat was a faithful member of the Manning Baptist Church, under the Leadership of Dr. Rodney McCorkle where he continued to serve the Lord and his community with passion and devotion. His legacy of kindness, music, and service will forever be cherished by all who knew him.
