

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come with me"
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Laying loving hands to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Obituary

Mr. Theordore Allison, the son of the late Rothy Allison Sr. and Leila D. Allison was born July 21, 1936 in Florence County, SC. He departed life on August 28, 2025 at Prisma Baptist in Irmo, SC.

He joined St. Luke AME Church in Johnsonville, SC at an early age and devoted his life to serving God. He served as the Steward Board Pro Team for many years. He faithfully served with a peaceful, joyful heart for Christ.

He was joined in holy matrimony to the late Mrs. Orger Weaver Allison on March 21, 1962. From this union three loving children were born. One son, Theodore "Tee" Allison who preceded him in death.

He was educated in the Florence County School District and has earned several technical certifications. He was a gentle spirit and hard worker who spent over 40 years at Welman Inc. as the Personnel Manager, until his retirement in 1997.

Mr. Allison was also dedicated to serving his community. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge #171, he proudly served on the Florence School District 2 School Board from 1972-1995, he was a member of the Hannah-Salem Fire Department Board, the Chairman of the Department of Social Service Board and participated in many other community programs and initiatives.

One brother preceded Theodore in death; Willie D. "Bill" Allison.

He leaves to cherish his memory a daughter Taneisha (Darrus) Green of Irmo, a son Tedric (Bridget) Allison of Lexington, and 6 grandchildren, and 1 great-grandchild who were the center of his world. Two brothers Rothy Jr., and John Henry (Sandra) Allison; five sisters Nancy (Elijah) Kelly, Goldie (Rayfield) Stuckey, Thomascena (Therian) Stacks, Bernetha Wolfe, and Wilhelmenia (Robert) Gainey all of Johnsonville. Two brothers-in-law Seward (Barbara) Weaver, and Ronald (Debra) Weaver of Hemingway, five sisters-in-law Marva Session of Andrews, Lorine Weaver of Florence, Mattie Allison of Johnsonville, Verbiatine Weaver of Hemingway, Shirley Weaver of Greensboro, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, & friends.
