Dad,

This letter is the hardest to write, but I will start by stating that you have been THE best father. Always going above and beyond to give us such a beautiful and rich life. I will cherish all of our movie nights, Law and Order marathons and listening to your stories from serving in the Army. I will miss the long drives to Connecticut with you Jamming to all the oldies and all our jokes and laughs. Thank You for being strong for me when I wasn’t. Thank you for instilling within me the spirit of determination and resilience. My earliest memory of you, is riding in the Blazer to pick up mom from work. Just like the song playing on the radio “I’ll Be Around” by the Spinners. I know that whenever I call you, whenever I need you, you’ll be there and you’ll be around. I Love You Always.

Your “Stank”
Sharita

Dad,

There is a lot that I want to say, but I will keep it short for now. I just want to say Thank You for being my father. Thank You for all the lessons, you have taught me over these years. Thank You for taking me on the road and showing me just how big the world was at a time when I thought it was so small. For being Patient and understanding with me and being here not only for the good times, but the tough times as well. There’s a lot that I wanted you here for, so many things planned for you to see. I just want you to know that I’m Proud that you’re my father, Happy to be your son and Honored to have your name.

Love “Jr”

Dad,

This isn’t what I expected especially, when you were supposed to be home by now. While we were preparing for your homecoming, God was too. While God doesn’t make mistakes and wouldn’t have called you home if were still needed here, know that you will always be wanted here with us.

I’m going to miss our morning, “See you later’s” as you went to work, late night random hypotheticals, hallway tag games and secret candy stashes. Most of all I’m going to miss the way we talked, debated and even argued. More so, Dad, I realize so much of me is you, especially down to the music I listen to. Just like Mom, you’ve helped to shape me in to the woman I am now and the woman I will be later too. May you continue to see that, where you are.

I love you so much Dad, more than I’d ever be able to show and I am going to miss you just as much too.

Don't Grieve for Me, Now I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
