

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

Acknowledgement

We would sincerely like to thank you for your kindness during this difficult time of sorrow. As we try to figure out how to move on and heal, your thoughtfulness will sustain us. Whether you made us a meal, dropped by for a hug, called, sent flowers, or lifted us in prayer, it is at times like this that we remember how much our family and friends mean to us. The words "thank you" does not seem to be enough. Please know that YOU made a difference in helping us celebrate Mary's/Mom's life.

Obituary

Mary Magdalene Elizabeth Bass Satterwhite "Maggie" was granted her angel wings on March 14, 2023, as she drifted off to be with the Lord. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends who she touched in some way throughout her memorable life. She was 81 years young.

Mary was born September 6, 1941, to Robert and Lizzie Robinson Bass. She grew up in the Fuquay Springs district of Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina, and graduated from Fuquay Consolidated School in 1959. She then graduated from Lincoln Hospital School of Nursing on September 15, 1962.

She met and married James E. Satterwhite on November 22, 1963. To their union, one daughter was born, Ellen Maria, in August of 1967.

Mary is survived by her husband, James; daughter, Ellen Satterwhite-Burton (Michael); four grandchildren, Angelo, Chaz, Bria, and Dace Burton; sister, Corrine Osborne (Norman); brother, Robert Bass, Jr. (Loretta); nieces, Kim Sangeiot (Larry) and Pam Bass; nephew, Stacy Bass; and many other relatives and friends who meant so much.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Archie Bass and Thomas "Buck" Bass.
