

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen
from the family tree.

I keep hearing a
voice that says,

"Grieve not for me.

Remember the best times,

The laughter, the song.

The good life I lived

While I was strong.

Continue my heritage,

I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely

The sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease,

My soul is at rest.

Remembering all,

How I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions,

No matter how small.

Go on with your life,

Don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly,

So keep up your chin.

Until the day comes

We're together again."

Expressions of Gratitude

The family would like to express their deep appreciation for the outpouring of love and support through your calls, text and visits. Most of all, we are grateful for your prayers during this most difficult time. May God's richest blessings always be with you.

We're grateful for all the memories and for every moment that we ever shared. From your hopes and dreams to just the silliest conversations that made us all laugh will be remembered. We will miss our talks and texts, but most of all we'll miss the hugs and being able to touch you. You made us proud and we'll forever love and miss you. We will watch over your little ones so that your memory will always live on with them.

Love Mom, Dad, Jalen, and Laurie

ALIK SHAVARR WILLIAMS was born on September 30, 1996, to Bobby Lee and Michelle Rose (Coley) Williams. He was a beautiful big baby with a head full of hair and the biggest cheeks.

Malik loved football and basketball. He played Pop Warner football in middle school, where he was a member of the state champion Cary Chargers that participated in nationals in Orlando, Florida. He played AAU basketball in middle and high school. He was also a member of the 2014 4A Boys State Champion Basketball team. He had a smooth 3-point shot. We called him our million-dollar baby because of all the sports injuries, surgeries, and rehab.

He graduated from Apex High School in 2014 and received a BS degree in Information Technology from East Carolina University in 2020. One of his proudest accomplishments was working in IT with NASA in Huntsville, Alabama. As his family grew, he felt he needed to move them closer back home. He secured a position as a Cyber Security Engineer with Krispy Creme Corporation in Charlotte, North Carolina.

He was a loving son, brother, companion, and father. He loved his family deeply. Family meant everything to him, especially his relationship with his Papa. His children were his entire world. Making time and protecting them was always a priority. He enjoyed watching shows with them, playing with them, taking them to the park and on walks.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Doris Coley, and paternal grandparents, Willie and Mary Williams. Besides his parents, he is survived by his brother, Jalen Jamaal Williams (Huntersville, North Carolina); beloved companion, Laurie Turbeville (Charlotte, North Carolina); children, Alaiyah Ulani Williams, Nova Chanel Williams, Kalia Rose Williams, Rowan Carter Williams, and Preston Gray Williams; maternal grandfather, Charles A. Coley, Sr., of Goldsboro, North Carolina; maternal aunts, Maxine (Michael) Richardson of Princeton, North Carolina and Cynthia (Thomas) Lockley of Ashburn, Virginia; maternal uncle, Kenneth Coley of Goldsboro, North Carolina; paternal uncles, Glenn Williams of Goldsboro, North Carolina, and Robert Earl Reid of Mt. Olive, North Carolina; paternal aunts, Emma Heath and Susie Hunter of Goldsboro, North Carolina, Viletta (Jonathan) Knight of Fairbanks, Arkansas, Patricia (Michael) Rogers of Randallstown, Maryland, Cindy Williams of LaGrange, North Carolina, and Phyllis Williams of Goldsboro, North Carolina, Jeanette Smith and Delores Price Stewart of Jersey City, New Jersey; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

He had the opportunity to meet part of his birth family 2 weeks prior to his passing. He met Dolyski Lee (birth father), Marshe McMillan (birth mother), Stephanie Rowe (sister) and brothers Chris Lee, Chad Lee, Stephen McMillan and Dolyski Lee Jr (DJ).
