

In Loving Memory
of
Marvin Lee Burch

Goodbyes are not forever,
Goodbyes are not the end.
They simply mean I'll miss you,
Until we meet again.
Listen to the wind and know,
That I am near.
No longer by your side,
But forever in your heart.
If tears could build a stairway,
And memories a lane,
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you home again.

Your grandson, Markel

THE OBITUARY

Marvin Lee Burch was born January 1, 1953 to the late David Henry Burch and Lillie Mae Burch.

Marvin attended Westside High School in Chadbourn, North Carolina. He worked for the City of Raleigh in the Sewer Maintenance Division where he retired on November 1, 2014 after ten years of service.

In 1973, he married Fannie Ratliff Burch (deceased). From this marriage there were three children, Marlon (deceased), Angela and Teka.

Marvin was preceded in death by three siblings, Henry Burch, Larry Burch and Annie Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories two daughters, Angela Brewington (Sam) and Teka Burch; six grandchildren, Markel Beckwith, Tynia Burch, Lamaya McClain, NaShawn Rose, Terrell Rose and Octavia Rose; two great-grandchildren, Jamaya Burch and Jelani Scott; one great-uncle, Willie Lee Burch; one stepsister, Teresa Thomas and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

For My Grandpa

God saw him getting tired and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around him and whispered,

"Come to Me."

With tearful eyes, we watched him suffer and saw him slowly fade away.

Although we loved him dearly,

we could not make him stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands put to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes "the best".

Tynia Burch
