

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

By David Romano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too
When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand
So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

Obituary

Hattie Mae Norman was born on April 11, 1933, in Creswell, NC, to the late Grant Harris and Lucrecy Boughton. She attended elementary and high school in Creswell.

Hattie met the love of her life, Robert Harold Norman, also of Creswell, NC, and they were married on April 28, 1951. Nine children were born from their union. She and Robert later moved to Baltimore, MD, in 1952. In 1954, they moved to Newark, NJ. Hattie remained in Newark until 2021, returning to Garner, NC, until the Lord called her home on April 18, 2025.

While in Newark, she joined the Little Friendship Baptist Church. She was a faithful member there for over thirty years, serving with the Deaconess Ministry and the Kitchen Committee.

Hattie was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend to many. She loved to sing, cook, shop, and travel. One of her most favorite things to do was helping others. She always had a joke to tell, and she kept you laughing. She loved her family with all her heart. Hattie never met a stranger. She believed and trusted in God. One of her favorite sayings when things got rough was, "There's a Lord up there."

Hattie was preceded in death by her parents, Grant and Lucrecy; brothers, Charles, Collie, Dennis, Herbert, Andrew Paul, and Alton Rayfield; sisters, Laura, Roxana, Ethel, Agnes, Henrietta, and Nancy; children, Jacqueline Faye and Phillip Ray; grandchildren, Denise Elizabeth and Azeezuddin; great-grandchildren, Barry Bernard and Tanaisha; and great-great-grandchildren, Zaire Tawone.

Hattie leaves to cherish her memories: her sisters, Doretha, Elsie (Waverly), Willie Margaret (John) Rosa, and Joyce (Ronald); children, Elizabeth, Verlene, Baaqia, Jerome (Charlotte), Deborah, Felicia, and Thelma (Arthur Lee); grandchildren, Sharell (Al), Ollie (Shani), Donisa (Wali), Belinda (Wade), Jaliyl, (Marta), Fayruz, Danaayaal, (Jessica), Hanif, Aqeel, Shawn, Baron, Curtis, (Christina), Melissa, Derien, Deron, Crystal, Patrice, Diana, Givon (Selenia), Davin, and Rashad (Teresa); great-grandchildren, Tawone (Lenore), Amir (Leona), Zakiyah, Ashantah, Mariyah, Juwan, Nathan, Noah, Naomi, Jerell (Nahilah), Shymar, Joshua, Shayne, Serenity, Alim, Yasin, Shawon, Shazzae, Savannah, Brice, Devon, and Judah; great-great-grandchildren, Skylar, Autumn, Kaydence, Paris, Zazeerah, Breone, Syidda, Jaquay, Amir, Adrienne, Vanessa, Jeremiah, Danay, and Prince; extended family, Chris Wynn and Nelson Fennell; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Hattie touched a lot of lives and was loved by many. She will be greatly missed.
