

Momma,
Your love shaped my life. Your guidance gave me strength, and our memories are my greatest treasure. My world is emptier without you, but your love will live on in my heart forever. I miss you every single day. God truly BLESSED us all with you.

Loving you always, Your Son ♥

To Our Sister,
You were more than our sister, you were our lifelong friend. Though you're gone from our sight, our bond will never end.
We will miss your voice, your smile, and all the love we shared. Until we meet again,
Know that you'll always be loved and forever in our hearts.

Love always, Jennifer and Jerry

Grandma, you were our safe place,
The heart of our family, filled with love and grace.
You held our hands when we were small,
And no matter what happened, you were there through it all.

You taught us kindness, strength, and faith,
And filled our lives with memories we'll always embrace.
Your hugs brought comfort, your smile brought light,
And your love made everything feel right.

Though tears now fall and our hearts are sore,
We know your love will remain forevermore.
We will carry your lessons, your laughter, and your care,
And in every precious memory, we'll find you there.

So rest peacefully, Grandma, free from pain and fear.
Though Heaven has gained an angel, your love stays here.
Until we meet again, please know this is true—
Your grandchildren will always love and remember you. ♥

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Mother Geraldine Judd James wish to acknowledge, with deepest appreciation, the many expressions of love and sympathy and gestures of kindness shown to us following our loss. We offer our heartfelt thanks to the many families, friends, and neighbors who have rendered emotional and practical support at this most difficult time, to those who have traveled long distances, and to those who have sent floral tributes, cards and messages of condolence. We are truly grateful.

The Obituary

MOTHER GERALDINE JUDD JAMES was born November 14, 1946, to the late Fred Judd and Mary Uver Judd. Geraldine entered into eternal rest on June 18, 2026, at Rex Hospital Raleigh, North Carolina.

Geraldine attended Fuquay Consolidated High School and dedicated 45 years of service to Lufkin in Apex, North Carolina, retiring in 2012. She was raised at Sweet Springs CME Church and later became a devoted member of St. Augusta Free Will Baptist Church in Fuquay-Varina, where she faithfully served on the Mother Board and sang with the Mass Choir.

As a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, Geraldine never met a stranger. She was always smiling, cheerful, and full of love. She enjoyed singing, cooking, and spending time with her family, who meant everything to her. Known for her impeccable style, Geraldine loved dressing up. Her hats and purses always had to perfectly match her outfits. Strong, loving, and full of wisdom, she was truly the heart and Queen of the family, and her love and legacy will forever be cherished.

Geraldine leaves to cherish her loving memories: her devoted husband, Johnnie James, Sr.; and children, Johnnie James, Jr. (Kim), Alicia Jones, Nicholas Wilson, and Candace Wilson. She was a proud and loving grandmother to Lashonda Brown, Christopher Brown, Bianca Brown, Lisa Wilson, Delshaun Brown, Kasheka Brown, Jala James, and Kendall James. She also leaves behind one sister, Jennifer Judd McKoy; one brother, Jerry Judd (Mavis); brothers-in-law, Burnice James (Linda) and Willie Earl James (Jocelyn); one sister-in-law, Essie Allen; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

She shared a special bond with her special daughter, Christie McNeill; two special nephews, Anthony Morris and Brand'n McClain; and her dear friend, Koren Hailey.

Though she will be deeply missed, her love, wisdom, and beautiful spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
