

Broken Chain

Little I Knew that morning,
God was going to call your name
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us on by one,
the chain will link again

Life Reflections

“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand, I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day.”

Clifton Autry Jr was born on May 13, 1951, in Raleigh to Ruby Abram and Clifton Autry, Sr. This strong man lived his life with purpose courage, and conviction. After giving his all to this world and those he loved, he answered his final call and took his place in his heavenly home on August 28, 2026, at Pruitt Health in Raleigh, NC.

Cliff was man of his word, and a hard worker. He enjoyed driving trucks, fishing, and spending time his family. If Cliff knew you and cherish you, he would give you his shirt off his back.

He attended Lucille Hunter Elementary, Carnage Middle and Ligon High School. He later met and married Lynnest Autry on April 24, 1981, whom he loved with all his heart.

He is preceded in death by his sons; Phillip and LaVar Autry.

Cliff leaves to cherish his wonderful memories: his beautiful wife, Lynnest Autry; children; Christopher, Cliff (Rhonda), Shauntina, Travis (Angela), Kevin (Tamieka), and Aspen. He leaves his brothers, Larry Autry (Dee), Garfield Autry (Doris), Mike Autry (Tony), and a sister Ruby Autry. His grandchildren: Raven Autry; Daysha Clark, Terrell Clark, Jade Clark; Jacobi Lewis, Xavier, Goodman, Travis Autry II, Naomi Autry, Jaylin Autry, Journee Autry, Jasmine Autry, Elias, and Kieran; mother-in-law; Annie Conner and brother-in-law; Al Conner and a host of loving and caring nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
